"For truth has such a face and such a mien,
As to be lo'd needs only to be seen."

Hail! wanderer of the sky! Thou bold Levine!
Your name through all the years to come shall shine.

It is a wise Penelope who goes after her own Ulysses and brings him back home.

Judging by the pictures of Lilli Dillenz, Miss Elder needs all her politeness to uphold the glorious traditions of the American girl in a highly competitive field.

We trust that for looking back, once on her way, Mrs. Grayson will not suffer the fate of Lot's wife.

Senator Borah finds an issue kicking about that nobody is interested in but the American people.

By forcing the dry issue on the Republican party the Senator brings the wet-dripping dry-voting South to the parting of the ways. The Republican leader who demands the enforcement of the Constitution can not fail to remind Dixie that it includes the Fifteenth as well as the Eighteenth. Watch your step!

In some quarters it is held that by forcing the G. O. P. to adopt the covered bridge as its campaign symbol, Senator Borah will compel the Democrats to throw up the sponge.

If the Republicans should nominate Senator Borah and the Democrats should be forced to name a wet it looks as though Al Smith, the well-known dry, might be eliminated at one wallop.

Another general and 30 men are eliminated in the Mexican preferential primaries.

George Remus' insanity plea may be based on the old adage that a man who is his own lawyer has a fool for a client.

The new French tariff note is a veritable diplomatic triumph—it's almost as satisfactory to Washington as Paris intended it to be.

Levine arrives and is met at the dock by a committee of Job's comforters.

Three Brazilian aviators give their lives to the science of aviation as Charles M. Manly, the world's first pilot of a heavier-than-air plane driven by gasoline, dies in his sleep in New York. Only 24 years have passed since man's first flight by airship was attempted at Wide-water, Va., but this brief span of time, which saw Mars put on the wings of Mercury and hurl down bombs on sleeping cities, the conquest of North and South Atlantic, and the linking of America with Hawaii, must be reckoned the most marvelous era in the whole history of mankind.

The Carnegie research ship is a good deal like a wallflower at a party—nonmagnetic.

We have a suspicion that Levine won't hear as much criticism of himself as he has been warned of.

No fair-minded person will deny that Japan has as much right to build an airplane that can fly to America as we have to build one for a tour of Japan.

Secretary Mellon can't understand why he should cross a group of fortune-telling palms with silver.

Where the Iowa farmers make their mistake is in not having a law to compel the United States to buy 80-cent wheat at $1.50 per bushel.

"Oh, call back yesterday, bid time return."

The Earl of Salisbury knew mighty well that a day gone never returns, but nevertheless the Dawn comes back.

Montgomery County enlists for the war and joins Virginia in sticking their own motorists for auto tags. Our part-time Washingtonians seem to be getting it coming and going.

Senator Smoot says that Congress can have an ice cream cone if it doesn't get infatuated first with all-day suckers.

Dean Inge takes the usual gloomy view of Canon Bullock-Webster's outbreak in St. Paul's.

House painter breaks into high society and has a picture hung in Pittsburgh's art gallery. He's the first one in any town who has admitted his trade.

Gen. Summerall ought to see the editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

Rear Admiral McCully adopts a mother for his adopted children.

Basil Stewart decipheres the symbols of the Great Pyramid and announces that a new world war will start on May 28. What time?

BORAH ASSERTS DRY ISSUE IS IMPORTANT IN 1928 CAMPAIGNS

Letter to Enforcement Group Held as Putting Him in Field.

SENATOR SAYS BOTH PARTIES AVOID POINT

Urges Committee to Compel Politicians to Announce Liquor Stand.

By CARLISLE BARGERON.
Having already caused considerable political speculation with his so-called progressive bloc, Senator Borah, of Idaho, yesterday made known he is going to attempt to force the Republican party to make an issue of prohibition.

As a beginning, he is to be the only speaker at a rally to be held in New York November 12, under auspices of the New York Committee for Law Enforcement. But before he accepted the invitation to speak he wrote Mrs. Samuel Bens, chairman, that it had to have a real law enforcement object in view.

Writing to Mrs. Bens under date of September 22, he said:
"If we are correctly informed by the public press and if we can correctly read the purposes of the organization leaders through their actions, it is clear that both political parties propose to avoid anything in the way of a commitment to the upholding and maintaining of the Constitution * * * except, perhaps, an insipid, meaningless generality to the effect that they believe in law and order. They might just as well say under the present circumstances that they believe in the Ten Commandments."

"If political parties are unwilling to meet the issue," the senator wrote, "it must be apparent to all that those who are opposed to the Constitution have won out."

Only if the women's committee is willing to force "this matter to a consideration in a practical way of the political parties and compelling if possible a definite stand upon the matter," would he accept the invitation to speak, the senator wrote. And his condition was agreed to.

Senator Amplifies Letter.
"It is now apparent," the senator wrote, "and the evidence is at hand, that not only do political parties select the officials, from deputy marshals to President, but they undertake to direct and control the officials after election."

Giles' Plane Crashes On New Zealand Trip

Elko, Nev., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Another accident today interrupted the Detroit-New Zealand flight of Capt. Fredrick A. Giles, British aviator.

In attempting to take off here this morning for San Francisco, his plane, the Wanda, struck a soft spot at the north end of the airport and did a ground loop. Capt. Giles leaped from the plane at a height of about 20 feet, escaping with minor bruises. The Wanda crashed into a ditch, smashing the propeller and damaging the left wing, the underside of the fuselage, the left landing gear and the tail section.

3 ESCORTING COSTES DIE IN FALL OF PLANE

Frenchmen Who Flew to Brazil From Africa Are Wildly Received.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A tragedy marked the arrival at Rio Janeiro today of the French aviators Dieu-donne Costes and Joseph Le Brix on their transatlantic flight, which started from Paris a week ago. Three Brazilian aviators, Capt. Attila Oliveira, Lieut. Salustiano, and Lieut. Thomas Barreto, attached to the welcoming squadron, were killed. The Brazilians were flying at a height of about 300 feet when their plane crashed and burst into flames.

The Costes plane, Nungesser-Goll, flew over the city attended by numerous army and navy machines and landed at 12:30 at the military flying field at Campo dos Afonsos. It was here the tragedy occurred, and it greatly affected the French officers, who asked that all festivities in their honor be abandoned. Nevertheless, they were greeted enthusiastically by representatives of the French Chamber of Commerce, members of the French colony and their Brazilian colleagues, whom they joined at a luncheon.

New Distance Record Set by Hydroplane

Santa Barbara, Calif., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Swimming over the ocean through fog and wind squalls, a 12-foot hydroplane, driven by Henry M. Hazard, of Santa Barbara, set what was believed to be a new distance record in this type of craft by traveling 88 miles in open sea between Santa Barbara and Redondo Beach yesterday. The actual running time was 4 hours and 55 minutes, but the elapsed time was longer.

COLORADO TOWNS BAN I. W. W. AS STRIKE LOOMS

Aguilar and Walsenburg Citizens Bodies Issue Ukase. Extra Guards Sworn.

MINE HEADS OPTIMISTIC

Walsenburg, Colo., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Orders of citizen committees to leave the towns of Walsenburg and Aguilar tonight faced members of the I. W. W. on the eve of a strike called in the Colorado coal fields.

Tranquil conditions prevailed in the district, but Sheriff Harry J. Capps, of Aguilar, swore in special deputies to prepare for any contingency. There was no apparent reaction to the citizens' committees' orders to the I. W. W., whose leaders sponsored the movement for tomorrow's strike.

Sheriff Capps said no attempt would be made to enforce the order of the committees, since he regarded it as illegal. Mayor Boecaccio of Aguilar, who headed the citizens' committee in that town, today headed a delegation that instructed the I. W. W. members to close their headquarters and leave.

Headquarters of the I. W. W. in Walsenburg were raided after the committee meeting in the courthouse. Records and files were burned. Mayor John J. Fritchard, who approved the orders demanding that the I. W. W.'s leave, expressed regret that property had been destroyed. Several members of the party got beyond control, he said, explaining that the original plan was merely to serve an eviction notice on the I. W. W. Leaders of the I. W. W. said the strike would go through as scheduled. Mine officials expressed the belief that the majority of the miners would remain at work and that there would be no trouble.

All three members of the Colorado industrial commission are in the field, and they have indicated that legal action might be taken to stop the strike. The industrial commission contends the workers have not filed proper notice of the strike, as required by the Colorado law.

Jealous Wife Chases Girl Through School

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Classes were disrupted and pupils in a public school were thrown into confusion today when an irate wife chased an alleged "admirer" of her husband in and out of the corridors and classrooms belaboring her with a piece of hose. A patrolman broke up the chase and halted the two before a magistrate.

Mrs. Margaret Appel told the court she had found Miss Bessie Kirby seated on her doorstep this morning waiting for Mr. Appel. She ordered Miss Kirby to depart. Later in the day, she said, they met near the school. Mrs. Appel was armed with the hose. After a quarrel she struck Miss Kirby, who sought refuge in the school. They were fined $5 for disorderly conduct.

$750,000 Drugs Seized Here And in Two Other Cities

Agents "Planted" at Union Station Capture Trunk of Opium Smuggled Into U. S. by Steamer; $200,000 Narcotics Taken in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A trunk containing narcotics valued at $200,000 was seized at the Broad Street Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad today by Michael J. Collins, a United States customs agent. The drugs were said to have been sent here from New York, where they had been smuggled into the country by steamer.

Earlier in the day Collins seized four other trunks of drugs, one in the Union Station at Washington and the others in New York. He placed a value of approximately $750,000 on the five trunks.

After receiving information that part of the opium smuggled into this country by steamer was consigned to Washington, Customs Agent Collins came to Washington and "planted" three local customs inspectors in the Union Station, awaiting the arrival of the consignment.

STRIKES SPREADING, GENERAL WALKOUT TALKED IN GERMANY

Troops Asked at Mines as 80,000 Workers Leave Shafts.

MUCH PROFITEERING; FOOD COSTS SOARING

Greed of Tradesmen Said to Have Taxed the Patience of Poorer Classes.

(Special Cable Dispatch.)
Berlin, Oct. 17.—Eighty thousand miners walked out of the soft coal mines of central Germany today, imperiling the Berlin coal and electricity supply.

Sixty thousand textile workers have been locked out at Munchen-Gladbach. The coal barons are calling for soldiers to protect the mines from terrorism by the workers, though the latter have organized an emergency service to prevent accidents.

Labor talks of a general strike. The price of rolls and bread went up 20 per cent today, all of which emphasizes the fact that Germany still is in the throes of a readjustment crisis.

Two Main Reasons Given.

This mainly is due to two reasons: First, the taxes—which are unavoidable since Germany must enforce high taxation to fulfill the obligations of the Dawes plan. The second reason is the glut of the German tradesmen.

Today's coal strike illustrates the latter. The miners earn an average of $8 for the whole week. They want $8.64. The ministry of labor in the recent arbitration decreed that this is coming to them. The owners of the mines are ready to grant the increase provided they are permitted to increase the price of coal accordingly. The minister of economics vetoed this increase. More expensive coal means an all around increase in the price of German production.

An investigation showed that the owner of a coal mine brings coal to Berlin for a fraction less than 25 cents a hundredweight, but the Berlin dealer sells it for almost 42 cents.

The dealer is profiteering, but the minister of economics declares that he has no legal means to prevent this.

Similar in Other Branches.
Conditions are similar in most branches of German industry which are paralyzed through the greed of the tradesmen and their own inability to readjust the cost with the sales price.

The workers waited patiently for a solution to this problem to bring them living wages. Their patience now is exhausted. Throughout the country in all industries strikes are flaming up the same as they did at the beginning of the inflation days.

Airman Faces Court On "Reckless" Charge

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Lieut. George J. Finch, of the Army Air Service, attached to Selfridge Field, Mich., went on trial before a court-martial at Fort McPherson today on a charge of reckless flying.

The alleged offense took place when the officer, in company with other Army aviators, was piloting an Army plane to Fort Sam Houston, Tex. In passing over Atlanta it was charged that he flew under 1,000 feet, the safety limit fixed by the Army, and that he flew "recklessly" and performed several "stunts" in defiance of regulations.

Mrs. Royal J. Miller, mother-in-law of Lieut. Finch, testified that while his wife was critically ill at her home, the defendant flew an Army plane so low over her house that it almost caused Mrs. Finch to suffer convulsions. Mrs. Miller said Mrs. Finch died a few days later.

Former Riveter Is Placed on Trial as Embezzler in Realty Business.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Embezzlement of $7,000 is charged against J. Robley Tucker, youthful Camden real estate operator, who in six years was reported to have worked a capital of $5 cents into a business with a yearly turnover of several million dollars. He was placed on trial today in Criminal Court on the embezzlement charge. His real estate concern failed some time ago with liabilities of $4,250,000.

It was alleged in two indictments that Tucker, formerly a ship riveter, failed to account for $7,000 to the Three Hundred Feet White Horse Pike Corporation which he was alleged to have formed and financed and which was said to have made a deal to purchase property in Audubon, N. J., in 1926 through J. R. Tucker, Inc. After the State had presented its witnesses counsel for Tucker moved that the two indictments be quashed on the ground that the Three Hundred Feet White Horse Pike Corporation was organized after the date of the alleged embezzlement. The court took the motions under advisement.

Fire Destroys German Castle; 5 Lose Lives

Berlin, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Fire that destroyed the historic castle of Affing, near Aueburg, took a toll of five lives last night. Baron Gravenreuth, owner of the castle, was entertaining a hunting party when the fire started. The roof burned and the tower collapsed. Two bodies were discovered under the ruins of the tower. Several persons were seriously injured.

ATLANTIC AIR RACE MAY START TODAY; 3 MACHINES READY

Actress' Plane and the Heinkel Aero Headed for America.

MRS. GRAYSON, BACK, PLANS NEW TAKEOFF

Out of Balance on Flight to Europe, She Returns to Old Orchard.

Possibility of a transatlantic air race loomed strongly last night when word came from Horta, the Azores, and Vigo, Spain, that both the Junkers and the Heinkel planes may take off this morning on the most perilous stage of their venture.

The Junkers D-1230 has had a thorough overhauling at Horta for the long lap to Newfoundland, and with Mme. Lilli Dillenz, Viennese actress, and crew aboard, is ready to go when conditions are favorable. The Heinkel hydro-airplane D-1220, at Vigo, will start for Lisbon, and if possible, and her fuel holds out, will continue overseas, with New York as the objective point.

Mrs. Grayson Forced Back.
Old Orchard, Me., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—With a possible world record under its wings, the Sikorsky amphibian plane, the Dawn, tonight awaited an opportunity to carry out its purpose of transporting the first woman over the Atlantic.

Improper distribution of load forced the Dawn back to her position on the hard strand this morning, less than ten minutes after a perfect take-off apparently had started her on the hazardous flight to Copenhagen.

The steady hands and quick mind of the crew averted what might easily have become a quick tragedy. As soon as it became apparent that the ship was "nose heavy" and would lose the scant altitude gained by the beach run, a dump-valve cord was yanked, spraying scores of gallons of gasoline through the air. The plane responded at once and swung back to alight almost softly on the hard sand.

Official Records Lacking.

In the absence of official records, Pilot Wilmer Stultz and Navigator Bruce Goldsborough were reluctant to make any formal claims for the load which was taken up and set down today, but it was believed that no sea-plate or amphibian in America, and possibly in the world, could show a similar performance, with horsepower taken into consideration.

A rough computation of the gross weight at the take-off was 11,500

Portieres Hang Lad When a Rug Slides

Special to The Washington Post.
Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 17.—John S. Parker, 14, of Linden, accidentally hanged himself in two portieres in a doorway at his home. No one saw the tragedy, his lifeless body being found a few minutes afterward by his sister Helen, aged 12.

A small rug that was on the floor, it is thought, slid out from under his feet while he was performing some stunt, causing the draperies to be wrapped around his neck and under his chin such a way as to strangle him.

$4,250,000 FAILURE FROM 85-CENT START

Former Riveter Is Placed on Trial as Embezzler in Realty Business.

Cook County to Hang First Woman Friday

Chicago, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—On the grounds that Mrs. Catherine Casler, under sentence to die on the gallows Friday for the slaying of Carl Lindstrom, has not enough funds to carry her appeal to a higher court, her attorneys tomorrow will seek a stay of execution.

Should Judge Brothers refuse the delay, only Gov. Small can halt the execution. If the sentence is carried out, Mrs. Casler will be the first of her sex to pay the supreme penalty in Cook County.

SURGEON ARRESTED IN OPERATING ROOM

Internes Horrified as Deputy Enters; Waiting, He Sees Delicate Work.

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A deputy sheriff invaded the sacred precincts of an operating room at Bellevue Hospital today to arrest a surgeon who was performing an operation.

Disregarding the whispered commands of a group of scandalized internes to "get out," Deputy Sheriff Leo Goldstein changed his raincoat for a sterilized surgeon's robe and watched with interest the delicate throat operation being performed while he held in his hand an order for the arrest of Dr. John Miller, who was performing the operation.

The order charged that Dr. Miller was trying to establish a legal residence in Nevada to obtain a divorce with his wife's suit for separation is pending here.

When the operation was completed, Goldstein served the court order on Miller, who later was released in $2,500 bail.

MOTHER FOUND GUILTY IN DEATH CAUSED BY SON

Georgia Court Holds Woman Responsible for Auto Mishap of Boy, 13.

PARENT IS FINED $100

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A jury in court here today held a mother responsible for the death of an old man who was run over and killed by an automobile driven by her son.

Mrs. A. F. Reeves was arraigned and tried on a charge of a misdemeanor, growing out of the death last March of George Clayton, 70 years old, who was run over and killed by an automobile driven by her 13-year-old son, James Reeves. She was convicted and fined $100. Bond of $300 was posted pending an appeal of the case.

Court attaches said it was the first time in Fulton County where the State undertook to hold the parent liable under a statute prohibiting a child under 16 years of age from operating an automobile. Mrs. Reeves was indicted jointly with her husband, A. F. Reeves, and their son.

She was charged with "knowingly allowing a child under the age of 16 years to operate an automobile in violation of the State law." Mrs. Reeves is said to have been an occupant of the machine at the time the man was struck. The boy and his father were in court during the trial of the mother.

Machado's Daughter First in New Hospital

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A new Pan-American hospital, destined to serve the 200,000 Latin-American people of the greater city, was formally opened today. Senorita Machado, daughter of the president of Cuba, was admitted as the first patient, and Philippine Ronda, Paraguayan Consul at New York, was the second.

The exercises were attended by the Marquis of Belmont, representing King Alfonso of Spain; Manuel Antonio Bolla, of the Costa Rican Consulate; Emilio Gomez, of the Columbia Consulate; the Rev. Gabriel Girard, chaplain of the hospital, representing the Catholic Church upon appointment by Cardinal Hayes, and Col. L. C. Salisbury, of the New York State Militia, representing Gov. Alfred E. Smith.

BOY, BITING TORPEDO, INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Mouth of Child, 3 Years Old, Is Torn; Stitched at Hospital.

Biting into an explosive torpedo which he had found in his home, 4425 Morse street northeast, 3-year-old Joseph Cunningham, Jr., yesterday was severely injured on the mouth. The explosive tore jagged holes in the boy's lips and split the inside of his mouth.

Mrs. Cunningham, hearing the explosion and her son's screams, rushed to him and found him with his blood-spattered hands holding his mouth. She and her husband, Joseph Cunningham, an automobile salesman, took the child to Casualty Hospital, where he was treated by Dr. Lawrence Murphy.

The doctor took several stitches in the child's mouth and probed for traces of gunpowder. He said that while the boy's injuries were extremely painful they would not prove dangerous unless tetanus or gangrene developed.

Ancient Vessels Found In Italian Cemetery

Naples, Italy, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—An important pre-Roman necropolis, or old world cemetery, has been discovered near Salerno by workers in a stone quarry.

Terra cotta tombs of various epochs have been brought to light and many stone utensils and vases belonging to the first century before Christ have been found. Urns of the leptythus type, bowl-shaped cups of the scythus type and earthenware jars of the stamnos type, have been found. Funerary urns with red figures and archaic inscriptions are being examined by archaeologists, who are keenly interested in the find.

Appearance of Prosecution.
Roberts looked in the pink of condition. There were pronounced red grooves on the bridge of his nose, indicating to some that he spent the last few days in assiduous reading, and his eyes glared as he looked at a little yesterday. Pomerene appeared calm, cool and courteous, as usual, and was called one of the two missing witnesses.

Wearing Bridal Veil, Leaps From Window

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Helen McCloskey, 26, a motion picture actress, donned her bridal veil and leaped from a second story window today seeking death because she grieved over the remarriage of her divorced husband. She was taken to a hospital, suffering from possible fracture of the skull and a broken arm.

Los Angeles, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Helen McCloskey, who attempted suicide today in New York, gained notoriety here several years ago when Gaston Glass, motion picture actor, and Louis Gasnier, a director, were sent to trial on a morals charge after an alleged drinking party in the actress' home. The jury disagreed.

Verdict Is Upheld In Mellett Case

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Conviction of Ben Mellett for second degree murder in the slaying of Don R. Mellett, editor of the Canton News, was upheld by the Court of Appeals here today. Louis Maer and Pat McDermott also were convicted of the killing and are serving sentences in the Ohio Penitentiary.

YOUTH KILLS GIRLS AND SELF AS AUTO SPEEDS IN STREET

Chicagoan, 21, Hired Car to Take Childhood Chums for a Ride.

WERE LAUGHING GAYLY JUST BEFORE KILLING

Vehicle Hits Another While Dead Slayer's Foot Still Is on Accelerator.

Chicago, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Wilfred J. Winters, 21, a boy they had known all their lives, early today shot and killed Margaret Martin, 18, and Catherine Stadler, 19, and then killed himself.

What motivated the childhood friend to murder the girls who had grown up with him probably never will be known, said the police, but this much they placed together: Winters recently returned from California, whence he had gone in an effort to defeat tuberculosis.

Miss Martin had spurned his love, though liking him in the friendly way she always had as a next-door neighbor boy.

Tried to Choke Boy. Saturday night Winters was arrested after he had tried to choke a boy companion to death and was released on bond Sunday morning.

Both Saturday and Sunday nights Winters had been drinking, although companions of Sunday night denied he had been drunk when they left him shortly before he shot the girls.

As late as a quarter of an hour before the shooting at about 1 a. m., the party was laughing and talking, apparently in high spirits. A man who knew Winters saw him with the girls as a rented automobile, in which the triple shooting occurred, was held up by traffic lights at an intersection.

A few minutes later the 8000 block in Rhodes avenue, on the southside, was alarmed by a fusillade of shots. At least two persons raced to front windows in time to see part of the death drama.

All Were in Front Seat. The three were in the front seat. Winters at the wheel, Margaret next to him and the Stadler girl on the outside.

Apparently the first shot struck Miss Stadler, killing her instantly. The next hit Miss Martin in the shoulder and, as she tried to leap out, the fatal shot struck her in the back.

With the automobile speeding along, Miss Martin leaped upon the door moment and then pitched into the street upon her face. A few feet further along Miss Stadler's body was thrown from the automobile. Another 100 yards and with his foot still pressed hard upon the accelerator, Winters fired a bullet into his right temple. His car raced into a post and rebounding, smashed a following machine.

Mrs. Martin, mother of one of the slain girls, said that her daughter had not relished Winters' attentions and had asked her how to repulse him without hurting him.

A coroner's inquest was set for tomorrow.

MRS. BUDLONG TO LOSE CHILDREN AND ALIMONY

Husband in Noted Case Is to Be Awarded a Divorce, Court Intimates.

JAIL THREAT FOR WIFE

Newport, R. I., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Definite intimation that Mrs. Jesse Margaret Budlong had lost her long fight against the divorce proceedings brought by Milton J. Budlong, of Newport and New York, was given by Judge Herbert Carpenter of the superior court at the conclusion of testimony today.

While not announcing flatly that "I will grant the custody of the children to Mr. Budlong and will leave it to him whether you see them at all, I have the greatest faith in Mr. Budlong."

If within his power, he said, he would revoke the $750 a month allowance which Mrs. Budlong has been receiving "as from this date."

Mrs. Budlong in the course of the proceedings today said that she would take exceptions from any adverse decision.

The final day was marked by a renewal of the clashes between Mrs. Budlong, acting as her own counsel, and Judge Carpenter. At one time, when he had intimated that he would confine her to matters relevant to the suit, he exclaimed:

"If you don't behave yourself I will put you behind the bars for a year."

Counsel for Mr. Budlong acquiesced in Judge Carpenter's suggestion that no final arguments were necessary. Mrs. Budlong launched into a lengthy review of her relations with her husband which Judge Carpenter cut short by insisting that she confine herself to the charges made by Mr. Budlong.

She declared that Mr. Budlong and his witnesses had failed to prove his charges of extreme cruelty and told the court she had nothing more to say.

The marital differences of Mr. and Mrs. Budlong attributed by the former to his wife's alleged extravagance and social ambitions have been before the court in various actions since 1923.

Several years ago at one stage of the litigation, Mrs. Budlong locked herself in a room in the apartment where she lived, and there stood siege for a considerable time, communicating with the outside world by means of messages attached to the building's elevator and thrown from a window to the street.

ENDING TRICKINESS IN TRADE IS URGED UPON U. S. CHAMBER

"Let Vendor Beware Lest He Violate Fairness Rules," Is Called New Maxim.

LOWER MAILING COSTS ARE ASKED IN REPORT

Federal Deficit Preferred to "Excessive Surpluses," Meeting Is Told.

West Baden, Ind., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Voluntary agreement by those engaged in a trade or industry to outlaw wrongful or unfair competitive practices is the simple remedy at the hand of business to the extent of obviating the necessity for it, Edwin B. Parker, Washington, D. C., tonight told the National Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He is chairman of the board of directors of the chamber.

The ancient maxim, " caveat emptor"—let the buyer beware—had been replaced in modern business by the principle, "let the vendor beware lest he offend the canons of fair dealing," Parker said in citing numerous examples of the manner in which the Federal Trade Commission had abolished tricky trade practices.

In these cases, Parker said, the commission frequently has had to set the affairs of some trade in order upon complaint from an outside source, but some of the conferences at which unfair competitive practices were done away with were called on the initiative of the industry concerned.

Cooperation Is Favored. As soon as business, "the oldest of the arts and the newest of the professions" takes on the professional characteristics of intelligent preparation through education and training for the work undertaken, a growing group consciousness and a formulation of group standards, it will be in the situation of Government regulation, not even being suggested, he indicated.

Parker pointed to the action of the chamber's annual meeting last May in urging swift elimination of wasteful practices and trade abuses through the sympathetic supervision of a Government agency such as the Federal Trade Commission.

The ultimate effect, both from the standpoint of trade and the public, of whole industries working together to improve their ethical standards, would be better than would that of enforced Government control of the same industries, he said.

Low Mailing Costs Asked. The Postoffice Department should look to increased volume at lower unit mailing costs as the source of whatever improvement of its financial position it wishes to attain, Lucius Teter, of Chicago, told the national councilors and directors of the chamber. Teter is chairman of the postal service committee.

Unity of purpose and action is to be obtained in evolving a plan for controlling future floods of the Mississippi River, construction and maintenance of protective works should be financed solely by the Federal Government, Frederick A. Delano, Washington, D. C., emphasized in his speech. Delano's remarks were made in presenting the report of the chamber's committee on Mississippi flood control.

"Whereas several of the members of the committee approached the problem, convinced that the cost should be divided between the Federal Government and the affected communities, they all came home from a trip to the Mississippi river valley convinced that complete Federal control and financing was the only practicable plan," he said.

The report itself, previously made public, recommended Federal attention to the problem similar to that given the Panama Canal project.

Excessive Surpluses Approved. A deficit in Federal revenues would be preferred by organized business to present "excessive surpluses," James R. McColl, Providence, R. I., asserted in connection with his report of the Federal tax committee, of which he is chairman.

"The past method of making eliminations of expenses should be radically revised," McColl said. "Even if a moderate deficit should occur no serious offense would be committed and the Treasury could provide for the deficit by borrowing temporarily at a low rate of interest."

While the chamber's program by no means advocated a deficit, he explained, "such a condition would be preferable to excess tax collections that depress normal business."

Syracuse and Denver spend considerably more for automobiles and gasoline than does Baltimore, according to a governmental census report on the spending habits of American cities submitted.

Nearly 17 cents of the retail dollar in Syracuse and 14 cents of the Denver dollar were for motor expenditures, compared with a little less than 10 cents of the Baltimore dollar.

Baltimore, on the other hand, spends 31 cents for food, whereas Denver spends 28 cents and Syracuse 27 cents. The Colorado city either leads or pays more for fine linens, their quota for clothing being 24 cents for the Empire State city and 20 cents for the oyster emporium.

Returns are now in process of compilation from other cities.

REMUS TO FILE A PLEA OF INSANITY IN KILLING

Motion to Delay Decision on Defense in Slaying of Wife Is Rejected.

PHILADELPHIAN IS CALLED SCOTCH SCENE DEPICTED

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Judge Chester R. Shook overruled the petition of George Remus to enter a plea of temporary insanity when the charge against him of killing his wife comes to trial November 14 and gave him until noon tomorrow to make his formal plea.

Judge Shook said if the insanity plea were made then he would set a hearing for it on October 31.

Charles Elston, Remus' attorney, said the insanity plea would be filed formally tomorrow.

The petition outlined that Remus wished to plead temporary insanity of the plot, he said, came to him while he was stenographer and secretary to Assistant United States Attorney John B. Marshall in St. Louis, who was prosecuting a liquor case.

Remus and Elston had refused to enter an insanity plea when Remus was arraigned Saturday to plead to the grand jury indictment of first degree murder and insisted that the plea was not necessary until the case came to trial.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles P. Tatt 2d insisted that the statute required the plea to be made at the time of arraignment.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Russell Moritz, stenographer in the office of Superintendent of Police William B. Mills, said today that he had been asked to be a witness for George Remus, held in Cincinnati on the charge of killing his wife.

Moritz said he had received letters from attorneys for Remus asking that he tell what he knew of a hijacker's plot against Remus' life. His knowledge of the plot, he said, came to him while he was stenographer and secretary to Assistant United States Attorney John B. Marshall in St. Louis, who was prosecuting a liquor case.

Trial of 11 in Flogging Delayed by Appeals

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Trial of eleven men indicted for bribery and kidnapping in connection with masked togings in Jefferson County has been postponed until January 2, 1928, Attorney General Charles G. McCall, of Alabama, announced today.

The attorney general said the action was taken to await the outcome of appeals now pending in the cases of Eugene Doss and L. A. Clayton, sentenced on Ocoee, in Blount County, last July to ten years in the State penitentiary for participation in the lashing of Jeff Calloway, youthful farm worker.

NEW FRENCH NOTE NOT SATISFACTORY TO STATE OFFICIALS

Conditions Attached to Tariff Negotiations Examined by Experts.

SUMMARY WITHHELD BY BOTH GOVERNMENTS

Some Formal Assurances Seem to Be Sought of Lower Rates From U. S.

(Associated Press.)
While first glances at the new French tariff note in official quarters found it highly unsatisfactory in some respects, the document was submitted to expert examination yesterday with representatives of the State and Commerce Departments and Tariff Commission cooperating to establish the exact significance to be attached to the conditions under which France offers concessions as to customs rates on American goods.

Neither the State Department nor the French Embassy was prepared to give out any summary of the communication, one of a series hoped to end tariff disputes between the countries and enter upon new commercial relations.

At the State Department, comment was restricted to the declaration that the conditional clauses appeared unsatisfactory, but without any definite indication as to their nature.

Can Not Grant Assurance.

Undoubtedly they are viewed by Washington officials as requesting some sort of formal assurance that the examination of American tariff schedules under section 316 of the tariff act will result in a lowering of American tariff rates on certain articles. The State Department holds and has previously informed the French government that it can not extend any such assurances, but must be guided by recommendations made by the Tariff Commission in application of flexible provisions of the tariff act.

In some quarters the feeling was expressed that the conditions in the note were not mandatory and that further correspondence would enable a formula to be drawn up under which negotiation of a commercial treaty can proceed.

11 TENTATIVE JURORS CHOSEN FOR TRIAL OF FALL AND SINCLAIR

the district attorney was immaculately dressed and seemingly anxious to open hostilities. He had the task of examining prospective jurors for the Government and William E. Leahy, of this city, for Fall.

As the hour of 10 o'clock came and passed, there were rumors that Fall was ill, but the fact that Cabinet officer set these at rest a few minutes later when he came in, accompanied by Mrs. Fall and her daughters, Mrs.
Chase and Mrs. Elliott, and by his counsel, William E. Leahy and Mark
B. Thompson, of New Mexico.

Fall wore a light gray suit and looked well until it was noted that he had a coughing spell and appeared troubled with a heavy cold on his chest.
His solicitous counsel handed him his overcoat after he took his seat in the row back of the Government counsel, and the spectators noticed that Fall drew it about his chest for protection from the chilly atmosphere. Mrs. Fall and her daughters were given seats to the left, in contrast to the other prominent witnesses were present on the opening day, though most of them

By this time the cherished seats were filled with the privileged spectators permitted to pass the door into the courtroom. Former Senator Harrell was noticed in the back row on the right, and the other prominent witnesses were present on the opening day, though most of them

teller at the Riggs Bank, who resides at 3014 Thirteenth street northwest, was accepted as prospective juror No. 4. He said he had read most of the articles about the oil lease cases, but had not formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

Challenged for Cause.

Glen H. Estes, 31, lineman for the Potomac Electric Power Co., residing at 2220 North Capitol street, said he had formed an opinion about the case, but thought evidence might remove that opinion. He was challenged for cause by the defense.

"If your honor please," interposed
Maj. Gordon, "I don't understand that is the test, that it would take evidence to remove it. He said that he could try the case on the evidence presented here, uninfluenced by anything that he heard prior to becoming a juror."

Justice Siddons took a hand in examining this salesman, and then announced:
"I don't think you ought to have a jurymen who has opinions, however far they may go, which will take evidence to remove them. The challenge for cause is sustained."

Conrad J. Herzog, automobile sales manager, age 56, and residing at 36
New York avenue, became prospective juror No. 5. He is at present employed by the Northeast Motor Co. He said he had formed no opinions about the case.

Came to U. S. From France.

As prospective juror No. 6 there was drawn Armand Fonderville, age 48, pastor of the Episcopal church, who resides at 2217 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and came to the United States from France in 1896. He is, of course, a naturalized citizen.

Hard to Find Jurors.

No. 7 proved a hard battle to fill.
George Frager, 23, residing at 142 Carroll street southeast, a hardware clerk, was first temporarily accepted by both sides, but was challenged peremptorily by the Government.

John P. Kern, 32, route supervisor for Holmes Bakery, residing at 1315 North Carolina avenue northeast, became prospective juror No. 7.

Michael A. Gagan, 28, shop foreman of the Corby Baking Co., residing at 324 Season place northwest, was challenged for cause when he said he had formed an opinion about the case. He was followed by Charles H. Hillegeist, 36, real estate salesman, living at 4519
Clinton street northwest. He said he had read the newspaper accounts of the case and had formed an opinion, but believed he was capable of disregarding his opinion and weighing the evidence.

Bradner W. Holmes, 34, floor manager for Woodward & Lothrop, residing at 2325 Ontario road northwest, became prospective juror No. 8.

Baseball Player Challenged.

Joseph S. Hanson, youthful-looking lineman for the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., was challenged as prospective juror No. 9 when he said he had formed an opinion in advance.
William Howser, 24, bricklayer and baseball player, living at 112 Eighteenth street northwest, was tempo-rily accepted by both sides, but later peremptorily challenged by the Government.

Eugene Glimmer, 26, lumber salesman, residing at 2226 Newton street northwest, took Howser's place in the box, only to be peremptorily challenged by the defense. This left No. 9 open when court adjourned.

The first clash over the examination of the talsmen on their voir dire came after the luncheon recess.

Ralph P. Gibson, electrical contractor, 3654 New Hampshire street northwest, had formed an opinion on the case but "could be convinced otherwise." He is a former navy yard employee with two brothers in the postal service.
Hoover challenged for cause, whereupon Gordon objected and asked to be heard.

The district attorney quoted court decisions to show that a juror might be qualified to weigh the evidence even though he has formed an advance opinion. Justice Siddons, however, took the position that when a juror has an opinion which has to be removed by the evidence he is not qualified and, accordingly, Hoover's challenge for cause was sustained.

Decorator Is Accepted.

Joseph J. Joholske, 32, painter and decorator, residing at 311 Channing street northeast, became prospective juror No. 10.

Laura E. Gilman, secretary and assistant treasurer of the Institute of Economics, was in line for the eleventh seat in the box but was challenged for cause.

She was followed by Harry Katz, 49, automobile man, living at 814 Fourth and a Half street southwest. He was peremptorily challenged by the defense and Edward J. Kidwell, 31, leather worker, 1637 V street northeast, took his place.

Julius R. Hanson, employee of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., 35, residing at 607 Otis place northwest, was temporarily accepted as prospective juror No. 12, but the Government challenged him peremptorily. He was followed by P. Guy Kirby, 37, stationary engineer at the Mayflower Hotel, who was challenged for cause.

Then came Eugene J. Leonard, 38, general superintendent of the Taylor Motor Co., living at 315 C street northwest. He was peremptorily challenged by the defense and his place was taken by Mrs. Pauline Levitt, manager of a cleaning and dyeing establishment, who lives at 615 Fourth street northwest. She became prospective juror
No. 12.

Blackmer in Paris, Declines
To Comment on Trial Here

Paris, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—H. M. Blackmer, sought in Europe for weeks as a witness in the Teapot Dome case, was comfortably established in one of Paris' leading hotels today when the trial of Harry F. Sinclair and Albert B. Fall was scheduled to start in Washington.

"It is evident I won't be in court when the trial opens. I have no statement to make; none at all," was all he would say.

He also declined to answer questions about the reported lifting of his pasport by American consular authorities here and about the statement of Senator Pomerene, made here recently, that Blackmer's property in the United States, valued at $100,000, would be seized.

Mr. Blackmer left his hotel shortly before 8 o'clock this morning to play golf at an unrevealed club in the environs of Paris.

Members of the hotel staff said that this morning was a repetition of every other morning, Mr. Blackmer being in the habit of making a round of the golf course, returning to his room only a few minutes every evening and then leaving again, coming back at a late hour each night.

Amundsen to Avoid Frigid Zones.

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Roald Amundsen, Arctic explorer, will make no more trips into the north or south frigid zones, he said today upon arriving aboard the Leviathan, because all that remains to be done in the way of exploration is the clearing up of details.

$14,598,730 SILVER SUIT IS CONTESTED BY MELLON

Would Mean Giving Producers $6,493,529 Profit, Secretary Says.

ECHO OF THE WORLD WAR

Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, is opposed to paying $1 an ounce for silver to American producers of this metal when the market price as of September 30 is 55 1/2 cents an ounce, according to the answer filed by him yesterday in the Circuit Court in response to a mandamus action begun by the American Silver Producers Association and others to force the expenditure of $14,598,730.13 for bullion under the Pittman act.

The association and its coplaintiffs charged that Mellon had declined to comply with the terms of the Pittman act and had refused to buy 14,598,730.13 ounces of fine silver at the price of $1 an ounce as fixed by Congress. The court was asked to issue a writ of mandamus to compel the purchase of the silver.

To compel the Treasury to buy silver now at $1 an ounce, Mr. Mellon says, through his counsel, Leo A. Rover, would be equivalent to making the producers a gift of $6,493,529.21, a sum representing the difference between $1 and 55 1/2 cents an ounce for the amount which the producers claimed should be bought.

The Pittman act, which authorized the melting of silver dollars into bullion and the sale of the bullion to England for use in India, was a war emergency, Mr. Mellon says. It authorized the Treasury to buy from American producers one ounce for every ounce shipped and sold to England. The purchases already made under the Pittman act at the rate of $1 an ounce, have already netted American producers a bonus of $8,000,000 as the United States Government paid that amount as the difference between the then world market price and the price of $1 an ounce as designated in the Pittman act. Mr. Mellon says that the Government does not need the silver which the case and had formed an opinion, but believed he was capable of disregarding his opinion and weighing the evidence.

Bradner W. Holmes, 34, floor manager for Woodward & Lothrop, residing at 2325 Ontario road northwest, became prospective juror No. 8.

Don't Believe

Your teeth are naturally "off color"

Simply remove the dingy FILM that clouds them and imperils healthy gums

BELIEVING your teeth are naturally dull is a great mistake. Science has proved otherwise. Permitting your teeth to be other than clear and beautiful is an injustice to yourself.

Largely on dental advice, millions are now multiplying the beauty of their smiles. New methods of tooth cleansing and gum care have been found.

With right daily care, you can work wonders with your teeth. Can give them whiteness and clearness that amaze. But not with ordinary brushing. Just send the coupon and a 10-day supply will be sent to start you.

It's film that hides pretty teeth and imperils gums

Dental science now traces scores of tooth and gum troubles to a germ-laden film that forms on your teeth. Run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel it... a slippery, viscous coating.

That film absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. And that is why your teeth look "off color" and dingy.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It lays your gums open to bacterial attack and your teeth open to decay. Germs by the millions breed in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Mere brushing won't do

Ordinary dentifrices and cleansing won't fight film successfully. Feel for it now with your tongue. Note how your present cleansing method is failing in its duty.

New new methods are being used. A dentifrice called Pepsodent—different in formula, action and effect from any other known.

Largely on dental advice the world has turned to this method.

It removes that film And firms the gums

It accomplishes two important things at once: Removes that film, then firms the gums. No harsh grit, judged dangerous to enamel.

Send the coupon. Clip it now before you forget.

NEW CIVIL SERVICE CRITICISM CAMPAIGN STARTED BY LEAGUE

Better Government Group Loses Employees' List Fight in Supreme Court.

CHANGES IN SYSTEM
OPPOSED BY FOULKE

Magazine Declares Commission
Fails to Give Applicants Enough Data.

While the Better Government League yesterday through a Supreme Court decision lost its fight to compel the Civil Service Commission to furnish it with a list of temporary employees in Federal service, the league started a new campaign of criticism against the commission, and William Dudley Foulke, Indiana civil service expert, came out with a statement opposing proposals for alteration of the Federal employment system.

The Supreme Court's decision in the case of the league against the commission sustained the ruling of the District Court of Appeals refusing to grant the petition of the league for a writ of mandamus which would have compelled the commission to supply to Dr. Ellery C. Stowell, league president, a list of temporary employees in Federal service.

The league, in its official organ, the Public Business, yesterday started a further attack on the commission. It declared the commission, in announcing tests and in answering reasonable inquiries from actual or prospective applicants, is without a great deal of information needed for effective recruiting. Its literature "smacks of red tape and bureaucratic method," the league asserts.

Schools Supply Information.

Many civil service schools not only supply to inquiries needed information which can not be obtained through the commission, but do so courteously and accurately, the league declares. These facts, according to the league, do warrant the commission's and the National Civil Service Reform League's recent sweeping condemnation of such schools.

Mr. Foulke, who was a member of the Civil Service Commission under President Roosevelt and who has been intimately acquainted with the Federal competitive system since 1883, opened a fight yesterday against proposals for radical changes in the system of regulating Government employment.

Taking particular exception to proposals of the Bureau of Public Personnel Administration, Mr. Foulke declared it a "perfectly crazy scheme for administering the Government." This proposal would abolish the Civil Service Commission, the Bureau of Efficiency, the Personnel Classification Board, the Compensation Commission and other personnel agencies, and would place the personnel service under a director of personnel.

Mr. Foulke declared the proposals of the bureau were unconstitutional and said that he would attack any suggested legislation from this viewpoint. "The whole proposal for a new law radically reorganizing the service would be disastrous," Mr. Foulke asserted. "There is absolutely nothing important to remedy in evils, real or imaginary, in the civil service today which can not be effected by appropriate executive orders and efficient administration. All these things can be done by the President alone without the interference of Congress."

GREAT WAR TO BEGIN MAY 28, IS FORECAST

Convulsions of Nature Also Predicted by British Society Speakers.

London, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Prediction of a great war was made tonight by Basil Stewart, one of the speakers at the meeting of the 3-year-old society known as the "British Israelite," held at Londonderry House by invitation of the Marquis of Londonderry.

Mr. Stewart made the solemn prediction that the next World War will start on May 28, 1928, and will continue until September 16, 1936. He based his prediction on the symbolism of the Great Pyramid, combined with what he termed prophetic forecasts of the Bible, and he asserted that the war would be accompanied by unprecedented convulsions of nature, floods and earthquakes.

England, he said, and other countries, which are the "port of Israel," will emerge victorious, but Russia, asserted the prognosticator, will be wiped out entirely.

Lord Desborough presided, in the absence of the Dowager Countess of Radnor, who is president of the society.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Dr. Charles David Spivak, eminent Jewish physician who died here Sunday, having devoted his life to medical science, dedicated his body to the advancement of his profession, it became known today when his will was read.

The will provides his body be turned over to a medical school to be carefully dissected, the dissection to be made by an equal number of Jewish and non-Jewish students. Dr. Spivak also directed that his skeleton be articulated and sent to the University of Jerusalem to be used for demonstration to classes in anatomy.

DEAN P. F. WALKER, ENGINEER, ENDS LIFE

Kansas U. Department Head in Agony, "Spiritual and Physical," He Said.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Apparently tired spiritually and physically, Dean Perley F. Walker, of the University of Kansas School of Engineering and Architecture, committed suicide in his office at the university early today. He was 52 years old.

No definite reason for his act was assigned in any of several letters left by the dean, although "spiritual and physical" distress was mentioned in some. Friends expressed the belief that he may have broken down under the pressure of outside interests in engineering.

"I am in agony—both spiritual and physical," said a letter written to Prof. George C. Shaeffer, head of the electrical engineering department. "It is terrible to see the end and calmly prepare for it."

Mrs. Walker was at a loss to explain his act. He apparently was in good health and good spirits, she said.

ARMIES SURRENDER IN PEKING DISTRICT

Shansi Troops, Battered by Defenders of Capital, Cease Fighting.

(Special Cable Dispatch.)

Peking, Oct. 17.—Martial Cing Tso-lin's headquarters announced the complete recovery of Suiyuan Railway to the Shansi border, 145 miles West of Peking, and the recovery of the Hankow Railway by the capture of Shih Chia Chwang, 172 miles South.

The Shansi armies, battered and lacking in addition to the heavy casualties, two regiments of infantry and twelve field guns, surrendered within 40 miles of Peking, which was the other captives, makes a total of more than 10,000. In the retreat over the mountain passes Tapan Yen Hsi-Shan, of Shansi province, was compelled to abandon a portion of the army and could not recover the badly wounded.

Bandit bodies in the Peking region rapidly are being suppressed. The city is quiet.

CAPITAL RESIDENTS TO SHARE IN ESTATE

Annuities to 3 Here From Millions Left by Mrs. Mary Emery.

Special to The Washington Post.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Specific bequests totaling more than $6,000,000 were made to more than 100 friends and associates and welfare, church and other enterprises in the will of Mrs. Mary Emery, Cincinnati philanthropist, which was filed today at Middletown, R. I. The residue of the estate, which is believed to amount to from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000, was left to the Thomas J. Emery Memorial, a corporation organized two years ago to handle Mrs. Emery's philanthropic interests after her death.

Among other large gifts were $50,000 to Albert Halstead, United States Consul General at Montreal, son of the late Mural Halstead, of Cincinnati, a newspaper man.

Among those receiving annuities, with the amount each will get every year, are the following: Mrs. Kate C. Ma-gruder, of Washington, D. C., $2,000; Mrs. Rita Wherry Hines, of Washington, D. C., $1,000; Mrs. Robert C. Chew, of Washington, $1,000.

Grant's Condemnation Proposal Is Opposed

Alteration in condemnation proceedings as suggested by Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant 3d, officer in charge of public buildings and parks, was opposed yesterday by the committee on law and legislation of the Board of Trade. Col. Grant had suggested that a Justice of the District Supreme Court serve as a jury of one, and replace the present jury of three.

Alexander Wolf, chairman of the committee, declared that he thinks such legislation is "unrealistic and unnecessary." Representatives of other trade organizations will be asked to consider a bill dealing with alterations in condemnation proceedings to be drawn by Fred G. Coldron.

IOWA AGAINST COOLIDGE BUT FOR G. O. P., IS VIEW

Gov. Hammill and Others Are in East; Aid for Smith in Midwest Seen.

PARTY IS COMING HERE

New York, Oct. 17.—President Coolidge is unpopular with the Republicans of Iowa because of his veto of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill, and the Iowa delegates in the next Republican national convention would be for some one else than him, but the State will be in the Republican column on election night next year, no matter who is nominated, and the farmers are feeling a good deal better over the business outlook than they did a year ago.

This is the collective judgment of a delegation of Iowa officials, with Gov. John Hammill as chief, at the Hotel McAlpin, on their way to Washington, and then home, after attending in Toronto the annual national tax conference recently held there.

Others in the party were W. C. Merckens, Iowa State executive council; W. C. Ramsey, secretary of State; J. W. Long, State auditor; R. E. Johnson, State treasurer; M. G. Thornburg, secretary of agriculture.

The opinion of most of those named is that Gov. Smith will have at least half of the Iowa State Democratic delegates next year, although Edwin T. Meredith, former Secretary of Agriculture in the Wilson administration, is making a fight against the vets.

The visitors said that Gov. Lowden was the favorite for President, with Hoover and Hughes well thought of. "Iowa is Republican, no matter what happens," said Mr. Ramsey.

"Iowa and the Middle West are fighting for a closer relationship between agriculture and industry," said Gov. Hammill. "We have been close to the agricultural problem have seen the accumulated savings of millions of farmers disappear, pang from those who earned it to those who had not. The Department of Agriculture estimates that the tax per acre on land per capita in Iowa last year was 220 per cent of the average tax in 1921-23, and in the United States as a whole the tax was 226 per cent. The Western farmers in the future will exert their influence in years to come in the direction promising best economic returns regardless of their past political and economic affiliations. I am happy to say that the total income of the Iowa farmers in 1926 was greater than for any other year since 1920, due largely to the high price for hogs."

Despite the tremendous "pull" necessary to start a resting train, the skill and experience of Pennsylvania engineers cut the jolts and jars of railroad travel to the minimum

The Engineman on the LIBERTY LIMITED in whom the spirit of the Railroad lives

A WRITER has written of "The Courage of the Commonplace" which becomes the courage of the crisis.

No group of men in the world symbolizes that thought more closely than railroad enginemen.

Hand on the throttle of 200 tons of power, eyes on the unfolding miles of track, calm, strong, completely efficient, is it any wonder that they are the object of the shy devotion of countless American boys, of the respect of every man.

Pennsylvania enginemen have come up through years of service on the road, years of vital experience. The hundreds of miles of road "ahead" are impressed indelibly upon their minds, every tower and landmark, every milepost and signal, every second clicked off on the shining rails. They know the route of their runs as you know your way home.

Throttle and brakes, steam lines and gauges, miles of track, over them all the engineman keeps unceasing vigil, for your comfort; for your security.

Despite wet, slippery rails, despite the tremendous "pull" necessary to start a resting train, the skill and experience of Pennsylvania enginemen cut the jolts and jars of railroad travel to the minimum. Almost as sensitive in their hands as an instrument of precision are the tons of gliding steel that make up the train.

Look up when next you pass the panting engine at the end of your journey. Look up and see a man in whom the spirit of the Railroad lives.

SUMMERALL RECALL CLOSED AS INCIDENT; SPEECHES STOPPED

No Further Action Is Expected on Chief of Staff's Criticism of Army Housing.

LANGUAGE Milder THAN REPORT OF SNOW

General May Appear Before Budget Bureau Ahead of Davis, Going Away.

The incident concerning Maj. Gen. Charles P. Summerall, chief of staff, like that involving Admiral Magruder, has faded and flickered and is now considered at an end. The Army chief of staff has been recalled to Washington so he can not continue making speeches inimical to the administration's Army housing program, but no further action is believed contemplated. At the White House yesterday it was still explained that he was recalled to discuss the budget, an unusual procedure. The outcome of the discussion, it is believed, will be the inclusion of $5,000,000 in supplemental estimates for construction of Army barracks and which is as much as can be recommended under existing authority. No reprimand or rebuke is expected. As a matter of fact, the general has not been called to the White House for the budget discussion yet. Secretary of War Davis leaves tonight for the Mississippi flood region, however, and the chief of staff may be called in his absence.

"No Tirade" by Summerall. While the Secretary would not disclose the result of his conference with the returning general, he indicated that the matter had been closed on another "misunderstanding" or "misquoting" explanation. His understanding, he said, without revealing how he obtained his understanding, was that the "rebuke" version of the general's remarks made the matter look much worse than it really was. Of course, the general spoke on Army housing needs, but he did not lose a tirade such as his quoted remarks would leave one to believe, it was said—such expressions as the American soldiers were worse off than German prisoners, for example. It was developed that regardless of how the general dealt with his theme he could not have used any stronger language than Maj. Gen. Snow, chief of artillery, in his last annual report. The artillery general compared housing conditions as similar to those under which German prisoners lived, and otherwise did not mince his language. But his remarks were a report.

Not Returning Indignant. There seems to be nothing to substantiate reports that the general was coming back to Washington in an indignant mood at the President's "rebuke." As a good soldier, it was explained by his friends, he realized that the President as commander in chief of the military forces had a right to tell him when to come home. In so far as the "rebuke" version is concerned, it was pointed out that it was the general who made it known that he had been recalled, not the President. Concerning the President's remarks at Friday's press conference, they seemed to be a defense against the general's criticism coupled with the impression that the President thought they were unjustified. It is explained that $8,000,000 has already been placed in current estimates for Army housing construction. Approximately $8,000,000 was lost in the urgent deficiency bill at the last session of Congress. It is believed that this latter amount will be sent to Congress in a supplemental bill or perhaps placed in the budget. Together with $8,000,000 appropriated before the total will be $22,000,000 or the amount of building so far authorized by Congress.

ITALY PROTESTS TONE OF JUGOSLAV PRESS Calculated to Strain Relations Between the 2 Nations, It Is Asserted. Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A protest against the tone of the Jugoslav press since the assassination last week of the Albanian Minister Tsena Bey at Prague, was made to the Jugoslav Foreign Minister V. Marinkovich today by A. Bordero, the Italian minister to Belgrade. Bordero said that the press comment was calculated to strain relations between Italy and Yugoslavia. Marinkovich promised to use his influence, but pointed out that the tone of the Italian press was also not particularly sympathetic toward Yugoslavia. A dispatch from Vienna Saturday said that Italy was the subject of particularly bitter newspaper criticism because of Italy's avowed friendship for Albania. Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Jugoslavia today was once more accused to great anxiety by the daring penetration by four Macedonian revolutionaries into the cordoned Bulgarian border near the Yugoslav village of Kravjevitza, where they attacked a squad of Serbian soldiers guarding a munitions depot. They severely wounded one of the soldiers and escaped. The Serbian government is making new representations to the Bulgarian government.

New York, Oct. 17.—Gen. Andrew W. Brewster, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Brewster, who have been passing the summer at their home in Winter Harbor, Me., have arrived at the Waldorf on their way to Washington. Mrs. Charles Henry Mellon, who is at White Sulphur Springs, will return next week and will join Mr. Mellon at the Berkshire, where they have an apartment for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Spencer are at the Savoy-Plaza from Washington. Mrs. Spencer was Mrs. Cleve Peabody and was married to Mr. Spencer last spring. Capt. Richard P. McCullough, U. S. N., and Mrs. McCullough are expected tomorrow at the Drake, where they will make their home for the winter. Mrs. McCullough is the former Mrs. Frank E. Hayward.

Ambassador Tellez Goes to Mexico City

(Associated Press.) Ambassador Tellez, of Mexico, left here last night for Mexico City, where, he says, he will attend to urgent personal affairs. While denying that his trip is to be official, it is believed here that the ambassador will take advantage of the opportunity to confer with officials of his government. His leaving closely coincides with the expected departure of Dwight W. Morrow, newly appointed United States Ambassador to Mexico, who is expected to leave Washington for his post within a few days.

COOLIDGE REAPPOINTS MRS. BRUEGGEMAN

Will Be Employes' Compensation Board Chairman for Another 6 Years.

Reappointment by President Coolidge of Mrs. Beattie P. Brueggeman as a member and chairman of the United States Employes' Compensation Commission was announced yesterday. Mrs. Brueggeman's term of six years is about to expire, and the reappointment for a new term has been made by recess appointment. Mrs. Brueggeman, from St. Louis, formerly was prominent in the civic affairs there. During the World War she organized the ambulance division of the St. Louis Red Cross Motor Corps, the first in this country. In July, 1919, she was elected Republican national committeewoman from Missouri, the first woman to hold this position in that State. She was a delegate at large from Missouri to the Republican convention in 1920. The same year she was appointed a member of the executive committee of the Republican State committee of Missouri, being the first woman member of that group. During the presidential campaign of 1920 Mrs. Brueggeman was appointed by Will H. Hays to be a member of the campaign advisory committee.

SUPREME COURT DENIES REVIEW IN MINERS' CASES

Will Strengthen Injunctions Restricting Labor Activity Among Nonunion Men.

WEST VIRGINIA AFFECTED

(Associated Press.) With no explanation for its action the Supreme Court yesterday declined the petition of the United Mine Workers of America for reviews of twelve cases in which the lower courts enjoined the union from carrying out certain activities among nonunion miners in West Virginia. The effect of the refusal will be to give full force to the injunctions granted by the Federal District Court for Southern West Virginia to the Red Jacket Consolidated, the Borderland and other mining companies. The mine workers sought to have the highest court pass on the validity of the injunctions, vigorously protesting against that part which they asserted would prevent them from conducting organization work among the nonunion miners. The mining companies contended the injunctions only would prevent the union organizers from attempting to persuade their nonunion employees to break their contracts and would not prohibit nonunion miners from joining the union provided they gave up their present employment. The injunctions are sweeping, prohibiting the union from interfering by threats of violence with the nonunion miners, from destroying mining property or interfering with the interstate business of the mining companies. The lower courts held the United Mine Workers were engaged in an unlawful conspiracy to prevent the interstate shipment of nonunion coal.

Carnegie, Science Ship, Again Docks in City

The nonmagnetic research vessel Carnegie, of the Carnegie Institution, docked here early yesterday morning from Hoboken, where it was overhauled. The ship will remain in Washington until spring, when it will leave on a three-year cruise of the six oceans of the world, during which the six scientists men accompanying the ship will conduct research in physical oceanography, the electricity of the oceanic atmosphere and other subjects. Capt. J. P. Aulup brought the ship here and docked at the foot of Sixth street.

SIMPLE HOME REMEDY FOR GRAY HAIR OR BALDNESS

Banishes Dandruff, Eczema Etc. Revives Youthful Lustre and Color.

RESULTS AMAZING FOLKS HERE SAY

"I bought a bottle for one of the children to stop the itching rash and dandruff for which it's wonderful and using it on my own scalp I was amazed to notice my hair getting thicker, more even colored and every gray hair turned back again, like magic," enthusiastically declared a lady whose beautiful head of hair is a walking advertisement to the success of Lea's Hair Tonic. "Lea's Hair Tonic has the faint odor of bay rum and contains sulphur which as everyone knows is a natural part of human hair, but in addition it has seven ingredients a doctor labored years to work out in his search for something harmless which one could use for years with unvarying change in the hair. He didn't want an old-time dye that brings such shocking shades, ever growing worse and darker. He sought a tonic to be rubbed into the scalp and not on the hair. (You can dip hair in a basin of Lea's Hair Tonic with no change in color, but rub it into the hair roots nightly a few times and watch the hair gradually resume from root to tip its youthful color of blonde, red, brown or black, whichever it originally was and who can give your hair a more becoming shade than the one nature gave you first? Applied at home with finger tips like any tonic, experts can not detect its use. In about three applications dandruff vanishes and the scalp begins taking on a healthy tone—then the mirror whispers a little secret—your hair is NOT gray any more and you are NOT a woman—thousands use it before the public would dream of staining their scalp with dyes, but Lea's is different—thousands use it unbeknown except to the family and you may, too, for a good druggist here now have Lea's Hair Tonic.

DEAN INGE CALLS CANON "BRAWLER" IN DISPUTE

Religious Circles in London Shocked by Bullock-Webster's Attack.

PROSECUTION IS 'TALKED

London, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Characterized by Dean Inge of St. Paul's as a "brawler," Canon O. R. Bullock-Webster, rector of St. Michael's Church, meets with scanty sympathy in today's press for his startling descent on St.
Paul's yesterday and his denunciation of Bishop Barnes for "false and erratic" teaching.

"I have nothing to say about such a brawler," Dean Inge declared after the incident, which has shocked the religious world in London. "We are entitled to prosecute him, but I do not suppose we shall."

The press in general condemns Canon Bullock-Webster for his "theatrical performance," and says that the bishop's sermon on "Man's Creation—Blind Mechanism or From Design?" was a serious, well-intentioned defense of evolution worthy of respect at least.
Bishop Barnes recently adversely criticized the doctrine of transub-stantiation, a sermon that attracted wide attention, and it was with this sermon in mind that Canon Bullock-Webster called for the bishop's expulsion from the Church of England.

Yesterday's incident in St. Paul's Cathedral evidently was carefully prepared, Canon Bullock-Webster being accompanied by a number of persons not attached to his own church. The final words of his protest were an invitation to "all faithful believers here present to join me in leaving this church before the sermon is delivered and continue to worship elsewhere." But seemingly none but his immediate followers accepted his invitation.

Canon Bullock-Webster uttered his protest attired in cassock, surplice and stole, which in itself is considered a breach of ordinary decorum, as a clergyman is not supposed to appear in another church robed unless specially invited to the church. During the time the canon uttered the protest Bishop Barnes remained impassively standing in the pulpit. The organist attempted to drown the voice of the protestor and few of his words were actually heard in the cathedral, but copies were liberally distributed outside.

2 HOURS FOR LUNCH URGED AS CLUB GOAL

Would Do Much to Eliminate Ulcers of Stomach, Doctors' Meeting Is Told.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A
"two-hours-for-lunch" club in America with a general membership would do as much toward eliminating ulcers of the stomach as anything, Dr. Garnett Wright, F. R. C. S., honorary surgeon, Salford Royal Hospital, Manchester,
England, can think of.

Mr. Wright, who also is a lecturer in surgical pathology at Victoria University, says rapid eating is probably the most common cause of the disease.
Overindulgence in smoking and alcoholic drinking also may cause it, he said.

Rapid eating, however, is not a sin peculiar to America, he said. "In London, we take longer for lunch, but we do not spend all of the time eating.
We eat as quickly as Americans do, and then we play dominoes until it is time to go back to work."

Here to address the international meeting of the Interstate Post Graduate Medical Association of North America,
Mr. Wright gave out his first newspaper interview, although he is recognized as a leading authority in his profession in Europe.

Lee, Janitor, on Trial In Deaths of Women

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Selection of a jury was begun today in the trial of Ludwig Halvorsen Lee, indicted for the murder, last July, of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Brownell, formerly of Groversville, N. Y., and Mrs. Semla L. Bennett, parts of whose dismembered bodies were found at widely separated points in Brooklyn and Manhattan.

For some months before the murders
Lee had been employed by Miss Brownell as handy man about her Brooklyn rooming house. He is alleged to have first murdered her and it is the police theory that Mrs. Bennett discovered his act and fell victim to a similar attack.

Every Washington Home Deserves Good Furniture

WHEN you select the furniture for your home, you should demand of it a three-fold service—comfort, good appearance and enduring quality.
Furniture is a most important factor in the home environment, and as such, should be chosen discriminately. You will find in the furniture you select here, that charm and excellence go hand-in-hand. The furniture that we offer is always good furniture—moderately priced.
Our aim is, and always has been, to put within the reach of moderate incomes furniture of beauty, recognized quality and durability.

MANLY, FIRST TO PILOT PLANE OF LANGLEY, DIES

Almost Lost His Life in his Unsuccessful Attempts; Noted as Inventor.

END SUDDEN IN NEW YORK

Word was received in Washington yesterday of the sudden death on Sunday of Charles M. Manly, pioneer mechanical engineer in the field of airplane motors, at his home, Kew Gardens, Long Island. He was 51 years old.

Basil Manly, of Washington, a brother, was notified and has gone to Kew Gardens. Mr. Manly was a widower, and is survived by two children. The burial will be on Long Island.

Mr. Manly came into prominence in 1903 at Widewater, Va., in an airplane which had been invented by Prof. Samuel P. Langley, of the Smithsonian. He was the pilot of the aeroplanes which were launched from a houseboat on the Lower Potomac River. Mr. Manly was thus the first man in the history of aerial navigation to attempt to fly in a heavier-than-air machine driven by a gasoline motor.

The Langley motor was largely the work of Manly, and at the time of the Widewater experiments was the lightest motor per horsepower in the world. The experiment failed when the airplane caught on the launching device and was thrown into the river, the pilot having a narrow escape from drowning.

In December of the same year Manly again hopped off in the Langley airplane from the same houseboat, which was then anchored off what is now Hains Point. Again there was an accident, and Manly was thrown into the river, which was covered with ice, and again he had a narrow escape from death. He was badly cut about the head, and it was so dark he was found with difficulty by the rescuing party.

Manly was born at Staunton, Va., in 1876, and was a graduate of Cornell College. He married Miss Grace Agnes Wisheart, of Washington, who died in 1921. He was chief assistant to Prof. Langley in the aviation development work of the Smithsonian Institution, from 1898 to 1905. Since 1905 he had been vice president and chief engineer of the Manly Drive Co., New York. He was also a member of the firm of Manly & Veal, consulting engineers, of New York. He was the inventor of more than 50 patents on automotive transportation and was one of the recognized authorities in the aviation field.

Boiler Pipe Explosion Kills Convict Fireman

Moundsville, W. Va., Oct. 17 (A.P.).
Harry Holcomb, a convict fireman, was killed to death today when the main steam line exploded in the boiler room of the State penitentiary. Holcomb, on relief duty, was asleep beside the pipe when it burst from an undetermined cause. A guard and another fireman in the boiler room escaped injury.

The mishap shut down the boiler plant and caused a suspension of all prison workshop activities, giving 1,700 prisoners a holiday.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.
Washington, Monday, Oct. 17—8 p. m.
Forecast for the District of Columbia—Cloudy, probably rain Tuesday; Wednesday partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; fresh to strong northerly winds.

For Maryland—Rain Tuesday and Wednesday; Wednesday partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; strong northerly winds. The trough for the storm is over the Chesapeake, being central in about latitude 39 degrees, longitude 83 degrees. So far it has shown no unusual features. Freshness is low and falling along the middle Atlantic and Carolina coasts, and storm warnings have been issued from Wilmington, N. C., to Boston, Mass., and from Baltimore, Md., to Cape Hatteras and Manteo. High pressure prevails over the upper lake region and thence northeastward to the coast of the Canadian maritime provinces. During the last 24 hours rain has occurred in the middle Atlantic States, southern New England, in the north Pacific States and at scattered points along the east and middle of the States.

The outlook is for rain on Tuesday in the Carolinas and northern Florida, and in the eastern lower lake region. Elsewhere the weather will be fair Tuesday and Wednesday in States east of the Mississippi River. Temperature changes will be unimportant.

Youth in Car Drowns In Crash Through Rail

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Robert Holland, 20 years old, of near Holland, Va., was drowned; his father, Lee Holland, and two Norfolk men, whose names have not been learned, narrowly escaped a similar fate this morning when the car in which they were riding crashed through the railing of the bridge at Reid's Ferry, five miles from here.

The men were en route to Suffolk from Smithfield. The body of the young man has not been recovered. The others in the party were said to have been injured.

CAR MERGER PLANS DECLARED INDEFINITE

Wilson States They Will Be Made Public When in Finished Shape.

DISCUSSION WILL BE WELCOME, HE ASSETS

Time Believed Distant for That; Wholly Tentative and Private, Childress Says.

Delay for a long and indefinite period will intervene before public discussion will be invited of merger plans presented privately last week to Chairman John W. Childress, of the Public Utilities Commission, by Harry P. Wilson, a member of the board of directors of the North American Co.

This information developed from three sources yesterday following a "counselling" session between Childress and William G. McDoo and Brice Claggett, his counselors.

Wilson issued a public statement containing assurance that "full and free discussion would be invited and welcomed," but that the present plan is purely tentative and that no public presentation will be made until the plan is in a finished shape.

Wilson said that the plan is a matter of fact, that it is at the office early tomorrow. So many persons are sending in solutions to the elephant puzzle that he is unable to select one.

STOCKS GO TO NEW HIGHS

By F. W. PATTERSON.
Savings banks in Washington, at the last call of the Comptroller of the Currency for statement of condition on October 10, showed a gain of $1,015,376 over the total of $37,343,432 noted in Statement.

Several Stocks Reach New High.
While the breadth of trading so much in evidence during the past week was lacking in yesterday's session of the Washington Stock Exchange, the market was particularly interesting, with several issues stepping into new high ground for the first time.

Capital Traction opened the day at a new high when a ten-share lot changed hands at 110, but this level was bettered by a full point on the next day's final transaction, which was recorded at 111.

Columbia Sand & Gravel preferred, in which there has been considerable activity recently, started the session at 102 1/2, picked up 1/2 on following sale, and advanced to 103 on final sale to set a new high mark since its listing.

G.M.P. Murphy Offices Opened.
The new offices of G.M.P. Murphy & Co., member of the New York Stock Exchange, formerly at 1408 H street, were moved to 1508 H street yesterday, and after a brief relocation, will be transacted at 1508 H street northwest, where offices have been opened in the Glover & Feltman Building, and at Connecticut avenue and H street, where commodious quarters have been taken in the building just completed on that corner.

Revision of the laws affecting welfare work in the District was advocated last night before the Monday Evening Club by H. G. Gill, of the Bureau of Efficiency. He also urged that the industrial code of the city be reorganized, and that more welfare work be done among the men committed to the District.

Organization of a privately conducted children's bureau to parallel the work of the public division of the Board of Public Welfare was advocated by Howard B. Gill, of the Bureau of Efficiency. He also urged that the industrial code of the city be reorganized, and that more welfare work be done among the men committed to the District.

Chief Purser Summitt admitted the plan had been shown three times on the way from the city to the ship, and had been highly enjoyed by the returning Legionnaires. The films, he said, had been shown by the Legionnaires as a courtesy to G. A. White, assistant director of the United States Lines. It was to go back by return trip to its owners.

NEW ISSUE
Republic of Poland Stabilization Loan, 1927
$47,000,000
Seven Per Cent External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds
AMERICAN ISSUE
Offering of the English and European portions of this Loan is being made by Lazard Brothers & Co., Ltd., in England; Societe de Banque Suisse and Credit Suisse in Switzerland; Lippmann, Rosenthal & Co., De Twenteche Bank and Hope and Company in Holland; Bank Handlowy w Warszawie in Poland; Stockholms Enskilda Bank and Skandinaviska Kreditaktiebolaget, Sweden and Banque de Paris & des Pays-Bas, France.

To be dated: October 15, 1927
Interest payable October 15 and April 15. Principal and interest payable at the principal office of Bankers Trust Company or The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, Fiscal Agents for the Loan, in United States gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, without deduction for any taxes or imposts now or hereafter levied by or within the Republic of Poland; also payable at the option of the holder in London in Pounds Sterling at the rate of $4.8665 per Pound Sterling; in Zurich or Basle, in Swiss Francs at the rate of 5.183 Swiss Francs per dollar; or in Amsterdam, in Dutch Florins at the rate of 2.488 Florins per dollar; or in Stockholm, in Swedish Kronor at the rate of 3.731 Kronor per dollar. Redeemable in whole or in part at the option of the Republic only (except for Sinking Fund) on October 15, 1937, or any interest date thereafter, on thirty days' published notice at 103. Coupon Bonds registrable as to principal only in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, interchangeable except into $100 denominations.
The Republic agrees to retire the entire Loan in semi-annual installments commencing at the annual rate of 4% for each of the first four years and increasing such annual rate 1/2% of 1% for each succeeding four year period to a maximum rate of 6% per annum. Such retirement is to be effected by the tender of Bonds or by cash sinking fund payments applicable to the purchase of Bonds at or below the redemption price and accrued interest or, if not so obtainable, to the redemption on April 15, 1928 and semi-annually thereafter upon thirty days' published notice of Bonds called by lot at 103%.

The following is summarized from a letter of the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Poland dated October 13, 1927:
This issue forms part of an International Loan to be issued for the purpose of carrying into effect a Plan of Stabilization adopted by the Polish Government in co-operation with the Bank of Poland. Arrangements have been made for the issue of the entire Stabilization Loan as follows:
£2,000,000 principal amount in England
$2,000,000 principal amount in France
$4,000,000 principal amount in Holland
$1,000,000 principal amount in Poland
$6,000,000 principal amount in Sweden
$47,000,000 principal amount in the United States of America

Purpose of the Loan: The Stabilization Loan is designed to consolidate and perpetuate a condition of monetary stability and budgetary equilibrium which the Polish Government has already achieved by its own efforts. The Plan of Stabilization represents a comprehensive monetary, budgetary and administrative program for ensuring a stable gold currency which will constitute a solid foundation for the development of the Nation's resources and facilitate relations with external markets by enhancing the credit of Poland already established at home and abroad.
Present Economic and Financial Conditions: With an area of approximately 150,000 square miles and a population approaching 30,000,000, Poland ranks as the sixth nation of Europe as regards both territory and population.
Poland possesses immense natural resources, especially timber, coal and oil, and it is the second largest producer of zinc ore in the world. The iron and steel industry of Poland is highly developed and is located principally in the coal districts where it enjoys favorable operating conditions. The country is served by about 12,000 miles of railway line owned entirely by the Government and operated at a profit.
Budgetary equilibrium has already been attained, with a substantial excess of receipts over disbursements. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1927 there was a budget surplus of about $17,500,000 (about Zl. 156,000,000). The first five months of the current fiscal year show a budget surplus of about $14,500,000 (about Zl. 130,000,000).
The debt of Poland both external and internal is small, the external debt, including this Loan, amounting to the equivalent of about $15 per capita and the internal debt to the equivalent of less than $2 per capita. The external debt, including this Loan, aggregates the equivalent of about $438,700,000, whereof the principal item is advances from the American, French, British, Italian and other Treasuries during the war and Armistice periods aggregating the equivalent of about $253,500,000. The non-political external debt of Poland consists of the equivalent of about $148,600,000, including this Stabilization Loan.
The Polish Government has concluded favorable arrangements with the American, British, Italian, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish and Swiss Governments for the refunding of their respective Treasury advances and payments under such agreements are being regularly made.

Monetary Policy: The Zloty has been given a gold value of $0.1122 per Zloty pursuant to the decree of October 13, 1927, corresponding to the exchange rates which have prevailed without substantial variation for over a year. Zloty paper currency will be issued only by the Bank of Poland and in accordance with new reserve requirements providing for a minimum reserve, in gold or gold exchange, against both note and deposit liabilities, of 40%; at least 30% being in actual gold. Substantially the entire foreign exchange resulting from the present Loan will be put at the disposal of the Bank of Poland with the result that its reserve ratio will then become one of the highest of any Bank of Issue in the world.

Budgetary Policy: The budgetary equilibrium already attained will be established on a firm basis. A total of 300 million Zloty of additional revenue is to be provided for the 1927-28 Budget, and a substantial surplus for the year 1928-29.
American Adviser: An American citizen will be named as Adviser to the Government and the Bank of Poland with powers and authority designed to promote the success of the Plan. He will be elected to the Board of the Bank of Poland.

Proceeds of the Loan: The Zloty equivalent of the proceeds of the Loan will be credited to the Government by the Bank of Poland, the credit being available only for the purposes of the Plan, and only with the authorization or counter signature of the American Adviser. About 75% of the proceeds of the Loan will, directly or indirectly, be applied to stabilization purposes, thus securing a better basis for the present currency without increasing the amount of currency in circulation; the remaining 25% being available, in further aid of stabilization, to provide credit facilities to State enterprises and agricultural institutions, in accordance with a program to be worked out between the Government, the Bank of Poland and the American Adviser. These credits will be independently administered on behalf of the Government by the Bank of Poland.

Credits: Credits to the Bank of Poland have been arranged by the following Central and Reserve Banks:
Oesterreichische Nationalbank..... Austria
Banque Nationale de Belgique..... Belgium
Narodni Banka Ceskoslovenska..... Czechoslovakia
Nationalbanken..... Denmark
Banque Nationale Suisse..... Switzerland
Bank of England..... England
Finlands Bank..... Finland
Banque de France..... France
Reichsbank..... Germany
Federal Reserve Banks..... United States
Magyar Nemzeti Bank..... Hungary
Banca d'Italia..... Italy
Nederlandsche Bank..... Netherlands
Sveriges Riksbank..... Sweden

Security of the Loan: The Bonds constitute the direct obligations of the Republic which pledges its full faith and credit for due and prompt payment of principal, premium, interest and Sinking Fund. As specific security the Government will assign its gross customs revenues which will be paid into a special account of the Fiscal Agents of the Loan with the Bank of Poland. The Government is entitled to draw thereon, in each month, only after a sum equal to 1/6 of the current semi-annual service charge including Sinking Fund has first been transferred to the Fiscal Agents.
The Customs revenues for the past three fiscal years ending March 31, 1927 have averaged in excess of the equivalent of $40,000,000 per annum, being over 5 times maximum annual service requirements of the Loan. During the first five months of the fiscal year 1927-1928 customs receipts amounted to the equivalent of about $14,500,000, being over 170% of budget estimates.

Application is to be made by the Republic of Poland to list the dollar Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Polish Government has concluded favorable arrangements with the American, British, Italian, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish and Swiss Governments for the refunding of their respective Treasury advances and payments under such agreements are being regularly made.

Monetary Policy: The Zloty has been given a gold value of $0.1122 per Zloty pursuant to the decree of October 13, 1927, corresponding to the exchange rates which have prevailed without substantial variation for over a year. Zloty paper currency will be issued only by the Bank of Poland and in accordance with new reserve requirements providing for a minimum reserve, in gold or gold exchange, against both note and deposit liabilities, of 40%; at least 30% being in actual gold. Substantially the entire foreign exchange resulting from the present Loan will be put at the disposal of the Bank of Poland with the result that its reserve ratio will then become one of the highest of any Bank of Issue in the world.

Budgetary Policy: The budgetary equilibrium already attained will be established on a firm basis. A total of 300 million Zloty of additional revenue is to be provided for the 1927-28 Budget, and a substantial surplus for the year 1928-29.
American Adviser: An American citizen will be named as Adviser to the Government and the Bank of Poland with powers and authority designed to promote the success of the Plan. He will be elected to the Board of the Bank of Poland.

Proceeds of the Loan: The Zloty equivalent of the proceeds of the Loan will be credited to the Government by the Bank of Poland, the credit being available only for the purposes of the Plan, and only with the authorization or counter signature of the American Adviser. About 75% of the proceeds of the Loan will, directly or indirectly, be applied to stabilization purposes, thus securing a better basis for the present currency without increasing the amount of currency in circulation; the remaining 25% being available, in further aid of stabilization, to provide credit facilities to State enterprises and agricultural institutions, in accordance with a program to be worked out between the Government, the Bank of Poland and the American Adviser. These credits will be independently administered on behalf of the Government by the Bank of Poland.

Credits: Credits to the Bank of Poland have been arranged by the following Central and Reserve Banks:
Oesterreichische Nationalbank..... Austria
Banque Nationale de Belgique..... Belgium
Narodni Banka Ceskoslovenska..... Czechoslovakia
Nationalbanken..... Denmark
Banque Nationale Suisse..... Switzerland
Bank of England..... England
Finlands Bank..... Finland
Banque de France..... France
Reichsbank..... Germany
Federal Reserve Banks..... United States
Magyar Nemzeti Bank..... Hungary
Banca d'Italia..... Italy
Nederlandsche Bank..... Netherlands
Sveriges Riksbank..... Sweden

Security of the Loan: The Bonds constitute the direct obligations of the Republic which pledges its full faith and credit for due and prompt payment of principal, premium, interest and Sinking Fund. As specific security the Government will assign its gross customs revenues which will be paid into a special account of the Fiscal Agents of the Loan with the Bank of Poland. The Government is entitled to draw thereon, in each month, only after a sum equal to 1/6 of the current semi-annual service charge including Sinking Fund has first been transferred to the Fiscal Agents.
The Customs revenues for the past three fiscal years ending March 31, 1927 have averaged in excess of the equivalent of $40,000,000 per annum, being over 5 times maximum annual service requirements of the Loan. During the first five months of the fiscal year 1927-1928 customs receipts amounted to the equivalent of about $14,500,000, being over 170% of budget estimates.

Application is to be made by the Republic of Poland to list the dollar Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

Price 92 and accrued interest to yield over 7.86%
For further information in regard to this issue reference is made to a circular which may be obtained upon request.

These Bonds are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us and subject to approval of our counsel, Messrs. Sullivan & Cromwell and Messrs. Rushmore, Bisbee & Stern. It is expected that temporary Bonds or interim receipts of The Chase National Bank of the City of New York exchangeable for temporary or definitive Bonds, will be available for delivery on or about November 9, 1927.

CENTRAL CHOICE TO BEAT WESTERN ELEVEN TODAY

"Long Count" Avoided by New Rule

National Body's Code Provides Fighter Be Taken to Corner. Must Pick Up Count of Timekeeper; Barry Decision Upheld.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—The National Boxing Association, after endorsing the Illinois State Athletic Commission and its referee, Dave Barry, in the handling of the world's heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey, in Soldier Field, September 22, today incorporated a new rule in its code quite opposite to that of the Illinois commission.

The all-day session of the boxing representatives from 24 States and five foreign countries, brought out only one thing of importance—the new rule regulating the count over a fallen boxer.

According to the new rule, approved by the association, the timekeeper shall arise when a boxer is felled and immediately begin to toll off the seconds. The referee is ordered to conduct the boxer scoring the knockdown to the farthest neutral corner, then return to the fallen boxer and pick up the count with the timekeeper.

Should the contestant scoring the knockdown leave the farthest neutral corner, the new rule provides that the timekeeper and referee shall halt the count until he returns to the designated corner.

In the Tunney-Dempsey battle the timekeeper started counting when Tunney hit the floor, while the referee was shouting Jack to the neutral corner. When Referee Barry returned to the fallen timekeeper he took up the count at "one," although the timekeeper's call had reached four.

Walter M. George, secretary of the Illinois commission, declared that Leo P. Flynn, manager of Jack Dempsey, had failed to register as manager of Dempsey with the Illinois commission, and for that reason he was not permitted to make a formal appeal.

George said that Flynn had promised that Dempsey would present his side of the case, but had never done so. After hearing the report of Secretary George, the N. B. A. congratulated the Illinois organization and declared the Tunney-Dempsey tangle a dead issue.

Although the new rule adopted by the national association does not follow the Illinois regulations to the letter, President Thomas Donohue, of the N. B. A., stated that it was adopted at the suggestion of Mr. George.

Another rule regarding knockdowns also was incorporated into the N. B. A. rules. It stipulated that when a boxer falls or is knocked out of the ring, he shall be given 20 seconds to return. If he does not, or is unable to do so, the referee shall count him out. The discussion regarding knockdowns took up practically the whole day and this caused the postponement of action on Sammy Mandell, Mickey Walker and other champions.

DEMPSEY PLEA BAN JOHNSON OVERRULED BY JUDGE

Asks Suit of Kearns Junior League Head Be Dismissed; Argument Waxes Hot.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Federal Judge Runyon today denied the application of Jack Dempsey for dismissal of a suit brought by his former manager, Jack Kearns, for recovery of $333,333.33. The case was set at the head of the calendar for trial in Trenton next month.

Kearns in court today denied there was any likelihood of peace between himself and the former heavyweight champion, Dempsey, was not present.

Arthur N. Segar, of counsel for Kearns, in addressing the court, referred to his client as a "Christian gentleman" who took hold of Dempsey when $100 was a lot of money to the fighter, Dempsey, he said, was a "bruiser," a "scalawag," and a "freight train rider."

Richard J. Mackay, of Dempsey counsel, asserted that Dempsey broke with his manager when he learned that Kearns had been convicted of a crime which Dempsey regarded as a more serious one than murder.

Judge Runyon, in ruling that the case must be heard in equity, without a jury, said that it was possible that "certain prejudices" might affect the matter if it were handled as a case at law before a jury.

Kearns instituted the suit in chancery court on September 18, 1926, while Dempsey was training in Atlantic City for the bout with Tunney, in which he lost his title. Dempsey's attorneys had the issue transferred to Federal court. The plaintiff alleges that the money sought is due him under a contract which he had with the fighter.

Rebuilt W. Va. Team Faces G. U. Here

Hilltoppers Seek to Redeem Selves at Homecoming. Little Lectures Squad; Loss of Barabas Is Keenly Felt.

By ORREL MITCHELL.

THE Georgetown University squad, sadder but wiser from its experience at Syracuse, began intensive practice for its "homecoming" game against West Virginia, the first of the big clashes offered for the football fans of the Capital.

Aside from the football game, the Hilltop authorities are planning an elaborate program. Alumni from all over the States are expected to visit once again the scenes of their college days, and see the Georgetown team attempt a comeback against the sturdy Mountaineers. The Hilltoppers look upon the coming West Virginia meeting as an opportunity to redeem themselves after their seemingly dull play at Syracuse.

Catchers will bring here a team whose showing against the powerful Lafayette was a revelation in Eastern football circles. The West Virginia eleven that was humbled 40 to 0 by Pittsburgh University will not be the same team that will oppose Georgetown on Saturday.

Cocher Rodgers completely dismantled the original eleven, and in the short space of a week built up a replacement more than redeemed the disgrace suffered at Pittsburgh with a remarkable display of power and resourcefulness against Lafayette in a 7-1 battle.

Five positions on the original team were replaced with new men in the wake of the loss, and the strength of West Virginia, who is lost to the team, asserted itself in the newly formed aggregation.

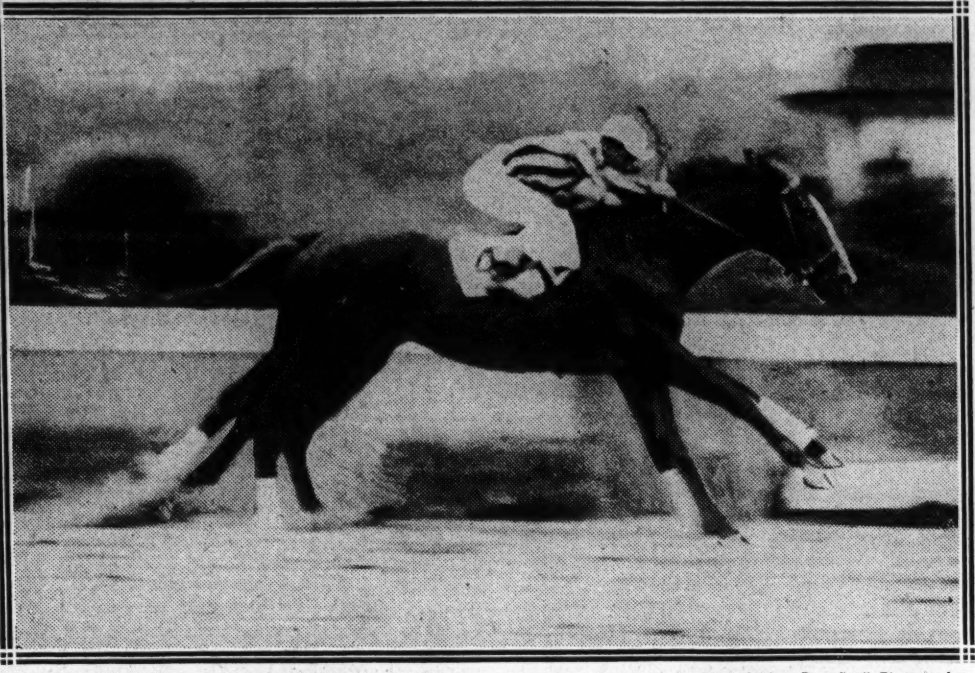

The recent tie game with Lafayette has virtually overshadowed the rout of the Mountaineers by Pitt, and West Virginia will undoubtedly present a smart, fast, hard-charging eleven, typical of the Mountaineer teams.

Although defeated, the Hilltoppers still displayed flashes of drive and power in their game against Syracuse. In Barabas, who is lost to the team for the season because of a broken leg, the team loses one of its most valuable players. George Barabas was the only player Georgetown had who could drive through a line by sheer force. He was a fine defensive player, and was the best blocker on the team.

With the exception of Barabas, the squad came out in fine shape from the Syracuse fray. A large part of yesterday's practice was devoted to lengthy talk by Coach Little about the game last Saturday, and the coming game this week-end. The players indulged in much hard work, but were sent through a fast signal drill.

Hudak, who has been playing a very capable game at full back, will remain at this position. The line-up for the game kept out of Saturday's game with a sore hip, will probably be seen in one of the half back posts.

TWO HORSES CROSS LAUREL FINISH LINE AS ONE

A remarkable racing photograph shows the hair-line finish of the first race at the Laurel track yesterday with the winner, The Roll Call, completely blotting out the second horse, Son Ami. Only the eight hoofs shown in the picture tell the story of a two-horse finish. Jockey Ellis, on The Roll Call, and Jockey Fishman, on Son Ami, are riding like a team. Ellis' form completely hides that of Fishman.

G. W. CAPTAIN IS LOST TO TEAM

Broken Ankle to Keep Allhouse Out of Fordham Game.

THE loss of Capt. Allhouse, who suffered a broken ankle in the Rutgers game at New Brunswick on last Saturday, was a hard blow for the George Washington Football Team. His absence from the line-up will leave the team seriously weakened for its important battle with the Fordham Eleven at the Capital on Saturday.

This report is not in the least exaggerated, as the number of the squad is reduced to a scanty 14, all "iron" men by necessity.

Despite such handicaps in reserve material and in other facilities, Coach Crum is guiding the team through one of its most successful seasons in the history of the university.

At New Brunswick, the Colonials outplayed Rutgers more than the 6-0 score would indicate, and on several occasions were in the 10-yard territory of Rutgers.

The victory of George Washington, and Fordham's crushing defeat by New York University has thrown a different light on Saturday's contest, which is expected to develop into a real battle.

The reserve strength of the team, College makes it the decided favorite, but the Colonials will make matters interesting.

While the varsity players were enjoying a day's rest yesterday, Coach Crum was looking over the prospects for next year, the present Freshman team, as it took through its regular practice at the Tidal Basin.

Chicago Quarterback Fractures Vertebra

Chicago, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Harold "Tinky" Blumh, sophomore quarterback of the University of Chicago's football squad, suffered a broken vertebra during practice today. He was removed to the university hospital and may be out of the line-up for the remainder of the season.

Kaplan-McLarnin Stage Bout Tonight

Chicago, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Louis (Kid) Kaplan, of Meriden, Conn., who once retired and gave up the featherweight boxing crown, and has won eleven straight bouts since he started after the lightweight title, finished training today for his ten-round battle tomorrow night with Jimmy McLarnin, Pacific Coast sensation. They will fight at 136 pounds, with the winner likely to be chosen by Promoter Jim Mullen as the opponent for Sammy Mandell's defense of his lightweight championship, for which he has signed for November 14 here.

Archie Bell, of Brooklyn, and Kid Lencho, Mexican bantamweight, will meet in another ten-rounder. Bell has been matched for a title bout with the bantam king, Bud Taylor, November 19.

"Mc" Sullivan, of St. Paul, and Howard McLain, of Louisville, represent the welterweight division on the card. Rolaux Saguro, of Havana, and Earl Blue, of Fargo, N. Dak., light heavyweights, go ten rounds in the semi-windup.

SOGGY FIELDS FOR EAST'S DRILLS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Steady rains and soggy gridirons failed to halt scores of Eastern football teams as they went to work today on another week of practice to fit them for games marking the fifth week of the season's schedule.

Light work was the order in some of the camps, but the majority plunged into long signal drills, forward passing and tag scrimmages.

Coach Lou Young, at Pennsylvania, announced that three regulars would not be available for Saturday's game at Chicago against Alonzo Stagg's team.

Paul Scull, half back, Johnny Shober, quarter back, and U. Z. guard, were missing from practice. The condition of the squad following the Penn State game makes light work necessary.

Gilmour Doble used several combinations for his Cornell varsity during a hard three hours of work. A wet field added to the coaches opportunity to note how the big Red team would stand up under weather handicaps. Princeton, with a brilliant victory over received blackboard lessons, and Coach Bill Roper outlined defenses against Cornell plays. A steady downpour curtailed active outdoor work.

Army, beginning its drive for the Yale game, engaged in signal drill and topped off with blackboard diagrams.

West Virginia emphasized aerial work in its preparation for the Georgetown game. Penn State's regulars indulged in only passing and kicking. Navy rested while Coach Ingram pointed out weaknesses in its play against Notre Dame. Ian Eddy, right guard, will be out of the game for a week because of a dislocated shoulder.

Pitt's squad returned home from Des Moines where it soundly trounced Drake, but there was no practice. Washington and Jefferson also rested. Yale coaches spent the day drilling the second team, as plans are being laid to make many substitutions against Army Saturday. Coach Jesse Hawley brought the ghost ball into play in the Dartmouth camp as the Blue Green worked long after dark for the Harvard game.

Schools Open Yearly Grid Series

Coach Ahearn Plans to Start Capt. Wilson at End Post. Red and White Loses Conger by Injury; Has 2 Reserves.

By ARTHUR A. HAYWOOD.

THE high school championship football series will be ushered in today at 3:15 o'clock at Wilson Stadium when Central and Western clash in their annual battle.

Central is an overwhelming favorite to win today's game. Coach Kelley's team has performed impressively in early season's game and the Western eleven is as yet untied. Western's lack of capable reserve strength to bolster an inexperienced first team has not served to brighten its chances.

Coach Dan Ahearn, of Western, has intimated that he will present a revamped line-up against Central today, the two principal changes finding Capt. Wilson shifted from guard to end, with Stansbury at left guard, replacing Conger, who will be unable to start because of a badly infected foot.

The shifting of Wilson to right end is seen as a smart move in an attempt to cope with Central's brilliant running attack. Wilson should be a continual menace to the highly-touted Central back field composed of Simmons, Cross, Stevens and Ault. Wilson, should he play up to his usual form, should stop many end runs and off-kick plays.

Western will enter the series with only two reserve players, now that Conger is lost. The two are Graber, an end, and Loney, a half back, but the latter will not see action unless it is absolutely necessary to use him, as an X-ray taken over the week-end revealed that Loney has two small broken bones in his right hand. The injury, which occurred over a week ago, is not serious, however, as the bones are already in the process of mending.

The Central squad was strengthened yesterday when Phil Kline, track star with demolition possibilities, reported to Coach Mickey Kelly. Though Kline will probably not see service in the game today, he will be ready for the remaining title clashes. He weighs 190 pounds, and, in kicking drill yesterday, was booting the ball for 55 yards consistently.

The enthusiasm which will be shown tomorrow will be fitting for the opening game of the series. The Central band will lead the parade over the stadium before the game. Western will be represented by a special cheering section.

The game will be officiated by Paul Magoffin (Michigan), referee; Edward Towers (Columbia), umpire, and E. E. Harmon (Bethany), field judge.

Mrs. Luque Divorces Cuban Pitching Star

Cincinnati, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Mrs. Adolfo Luque was granted a divorce from her husband, the Cuban pitching star of the Cincinnati Reds, inside of ten minutes today.

Mrs. Luque told the court that when the Reds lost a game, her husband was afraid to go home because he feared let all of his pent-up wrath loose upon her.

Judge Charles Hoffmann granted the decree on grounds of extreme cruelty and awarded her alimony of $2,500.

Lone Navy Gridman Injured at Baltimore

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Only one casualty as the result of Saturday's defeat by Notre Dame was reported today by Navy football coaches. An Eddy varsity right guard, probably will be on the bench for a week or two with a dislocated shoulder, they said.

The varsity rested today and heard their weaknesses which came to light on Saturday, pointed out by Coach Ingram. Practice for the game with Duke University here next Saturday will begin tomorrow.

CARLYLES AHEAD.

The Carlyles won their second straight game by defeating the Senator Eleven, 12 to 6. Ardenes and Kane accounted for touchdowns for the winners.

Britton, 43, Beaten As Fans Boo Fight

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Hilario Martinez, of Spain, was awarded a judge's decision over Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, in a slow and uninteresting ten-round bout at the Broadway Boxing Club, in Brooklyn, tonight. Martinez scaled 144 pounds; Britton, 146½.

Britton, who observed his forty-third birthday just two days ago, appeared to be bewildered early in the fight and sank to the floor in the first round after a tame clinch with the Spaniard. He seemed to have received a low punch. The referee evidently did not see the low punch, and, as the count against Britton reached five, the veteran got to his feet and proceeded with his bout.

At no time was there a furious encounter. It was tame, and the fans booed. Many of them left after the sixth round, when actions of the boxers took on the form of a slow motion picture.

Schoolboy, 19, Dies From Grid Injuries

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Harry Borski, 19, star football player for the Star-Brick High School at Natrona, a suburb, died last night from internal injuries suffered in a game on Saturday.

Army Linemen Better Students Than Backs

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 17.—An analysis of the class standing of the members of the varsity football squad at the United States Military Academy shows that football men are good students and that linemen are better students than backs.

The average number of men in the upper three classes at West Point was 298 for last year. Considering only the men of the first two football teams, the linemen had an average class standing for last year of 99, while the backs averaged 149. The average standing for the first two teams was 117, while the average for the whole squad was 140.

Of all the positions the ends have the best academic record. The ends on the first two teams with their class standing are Born, 64; Harold, 116; Brentnall, 37, and Wahl, 16, for a total average of 58.

The best student on the squad is Seaman, regular guard, who stands 9 in his class and is a "star" man. Stars are awarded annually to those cadets whose total grades average 92 per cent. There are at present only 29 "star" men in the corps of cadets.

The average standing for the entire corps of cadets is 143.

MARFELDT'S ACTIVE.

Marfeldt A. C. have listed one more game before their start in the 150-pound division of the Capital City series Sunday, when they play the Alexandria Fire Department Prep on the Mount Rainier field at 2:30 o'clock.

Robins Bolster Club For 1928 Pennant Race

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—Brooklyn has a habit of figuring as a pennant contender every four years, which may have something to do with the fact that the Robins are putting forth unusual effort to bolster the club for the 1928 National League race.

The signing of Dave Bancroft, manager and shortstop of the Boston Braves, is the first move in the reconstruction process. Kiki Cuyler, Pirate outfielder, who was exiled from competition in the latter part of the season, is also being sought by Brooklyn to strengthen the outer works.

The club already has one of the best twirling staffs in the league with Vance, Petty, Mack and McWeeny as stars, but its batting punch and infield defense left much to be desired last season.

Injuries and Nonscouting Agreement Hinder Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—An agreement with Coach Lou Young, of Pennsylvania, to the Chicago football squad into practice tonight for the Penn invasion Saturday with nothing but the old "hidden ball" play to work on. This trick accomplished the downfall of Chicago last year at Philadelphia, but the freshmen were notably unsuccessful with it tonight.

Two left-over casualties and a third sustained today out of the Chicago reserves alarmingly. Vin Libby, one of Chicago's best backs, injured his hip Saturday, and Proulx, tackle, hurt his shoulder. Tonight Inky Blumh, reserve quarter, was injured.

Hard work on some of the simple fundamentals of the game began for several of the conference teams which fumbled badly Saturday. At least three weak lines were brought to light.

The failure of the Minnesota line to open holes for their back field contributed almost as much to the most notable upset against Indiana as Nydahl's fumble of a punt. Close to their goal the inspired Hoosiers stopped Herb Hastings, the All-American full back, who was the "irresistible force" of the Big Ten last year.

The Illini failed to stem the desperate rush of Iowa State, which finally earned the victory in a tie against Zuppke's eleven. If Illinois could not stop Iowa State, Zuppke warned his linemen to

Buffalo Pro Eleven Disbands for Season

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 17 (A.P.)—The Buffalo Team of the National Professional Football League will disband, it was decided today by President Ray F. Weil and Alfred J. Lowe, secretary and treasurer of the club. The remaining games on the schedule will be cancelled, they announced.

Action to disband was taken after the club received the resignation of George "Dink" Batterson, coach and manager of the team. He gave lack of cooperation from players and interference by club managers as the reasons for his resignation. Financial reverses as the result of five straight defeats were given by club officials as reasons for the disbandment.

The Bison Club will forfeit the guarantee it posted with the league at the season's opening, but it will retain the franchise and attempt to reorganize next year.

Wisconsin Prepares For Purdue Battle

Madison, Wis., Oct. 17.—Infused with greater determination and fight rather than affected adversely by the brave stand it took against Michigan last Saturday, Wisconsin today buckled down to a week of work which is expected to culminate in victory over the Boilermaker eleven of Purdue here on October 22.

While Purdue is being accorded every edge that constitutes a major threat in the grid sport, there is an undercurrent of feeling that the Cardinal, because of the manner in which it attacked the Wolverine squad, can do the Boilermakers one better.

Golfer Hopes to Drive From Lakes to Gulf

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 17 (A.P.)—"Mollie Bill" Jackson, a professional golfer and golfer, took off from Cleveland this afternoon on the first leg of an attempt to drive a golf ball to his home in Mobile, Ala., where he hopes to arrive in time for Christmas dinner.

When darkness overtook him he had gone his way three miles south of his starting point at the city limits. On the first lap of the 1,200-mile journey he used 102 strokes and lost one ball.

The Mobile Chamber of Commerce knows Jackson is on his way and has urged chambers along the route to welcome him.

Bill will drive the ball to Cincinnati, where he expects a buddy to join him. Then he will golf his way down the Dixie Highway to Mobile.

He once attempted to drive a ball from Mobile to Hollywood, but the Pacific Coast endeavor failed. He hopes for better luck on his lakes-to-gulf effort.

FRANCIS WILSON TO TALK FOR RADIO FANS TONIGHT

Noted Actor Will Be Honor Guest During Eveready Hour.

4 1/2-HOUR BROADCASTING

Francis Wilson, the noted actor, will be the honor guest in the Eveready Hour at 9 o'clock tonight and will repeat the excerpt from "Rip Van Winkle," which proved the chief hit of his highly successful appearance during the same hour last fall. In addition, Mr. Wilson will take part in the program, "The History of Motion Pictures," by Colby Harrison, and "The Rivals," an excerpt from his own play, "The Bachelor's Baby."

The Eveready Hour and the other members of the Eveready group, including the Eveready Orchestra, with Nathaniel Shilkret conducting, and Virginia Lee as soprano soloist, will participate in the program. The orchestra will play, among other selections, music from "Erminie," one of the plays in which Mr. Wilson has starred.

With the appearance of Francis Wilson tonight, following so closely on the broadcasting of Otis Skinner during the Eveready Hour, it is evident that this feature will continue the tradition of last season in presenting the leaders in the various entertainment arts this fall.

The ride of Gen. "Phil" Sheridan, immortalized in the poem "Winchester—Twenty Miles Away," has been selected by Henry Plak Carlton as the historical incident to be portrayed in the "Great Moments in History" tonight at 8 o'clock.

During the Civil War the Shenandoah Valley was the prize of both armies. If it could be controlled by the Confederate forces they were in a position to constantly threaten Washington, whereas if the Northern forces controlled it the supplies of Richmond might be cut off. In 1862 Gen. Early, noted Confederate leader, menaced Washington and spread devastation through Pennsylvania. Grant picked Sheridan, at that time only 33 years old, to cope with Gen. Early. Sheridan's story will be related tonight.

"Cotton" and "Morpheus" come to grief on an automobile trip tonight at 8:30 o'clock. "Hector," the portable radio set now familiar to radio listeners, is saved, however, and consequently listeners will hear a selection by "The Sealy Air Weavers" as the two travelers twirl the dials.

The Radio Cavalcade will be presented tonight at 10 o'clock. Charles Wold and his musical glasses; Herman Mupfeld, singing pianist; Robert Lindholm, accordionist, and others, including the Cavalcade Orchestra with Harold Sanford.

A four and one-half hour program will be broadcast by Station WMAL tonight, beginning at 7 o'clock, when "The Villa Roma Club Entertainers" go on the air. "Reminiscences from the Army, Navy and Marine Service" will

HEY, LISTEN, FANS. IS THIS RIGHT? I ASK YOU!

ON ORDER TO COMPLY WITH THE WISHES OF NUMEROUS "MINUTE MOVIES" FANS, WE SIGNED UP A DARK-HAIRED ACTOR NAMED PAUL VOGUE TO PLAY OPPOSITE HAZEL DEARIE ONCE IN A WHILE

IMAGINE OUR SURPRISE ON RECEIVING THE FOLLOWING LETTERS FROM SOME OF OUR PATRONS, EVEN BEFORE "THE GREAT AIR MAIL MYSTERY" WAS FINISHED

Dear Ed your new star Paul Vogue is a flop

What's the idea of the new star? Look him up just enough for us. Vogue did his duty. Ed Wheeler

ANOTHER LETTER FROM NEWARK, N.J. SIGNED BY 32 MINUTE MOVIES FANS. PROTESTS AGAINST OUR LATEST STAR, PAUL VOGUE

Mr. Lane had served and pleased the movie fans very well and should not have his place taken by this plastered French Cheik. This French Cheik will never be able to do what Dick Lane has done take for instance the time Dick Lane with his horse patches jumped the cliff. If the plastered Paul Vogue ever tried to do that he'd die on sight

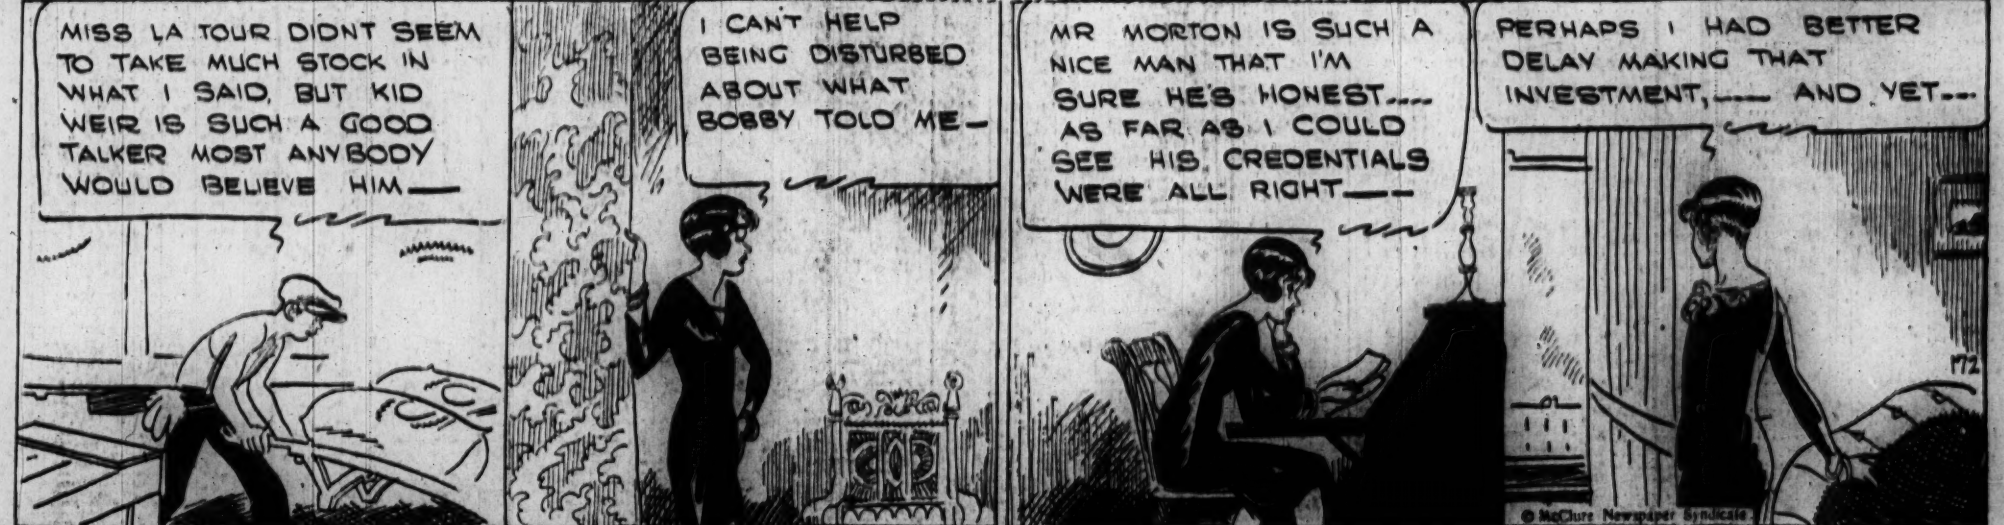

ANOTHER LETTER FROM NEWARK, N.J. SIGNED BY 32 MINUTE MOVIES FANS. PROTESTS AGAINST OUR LATEST STAR, PAUL VOGUE

NOW LOOK HERE, FANS—GIVE MR. VOGUE A CHANCE. HE IS NOT TAKING DICK DARE'S PLACE EXCEPT NOW AND THEN FOR THE SAKE OF VARIETY, AND FURTHERMORE, HE IS NOT A "PLASTERED FRENCH CHEIK"—PAUL VOGUE IS AN AMERICAN WHO HAS LIVED ABROAD. FANS, WRITE AND TELL ME HOW YOU FEEL ABOUT THIS AT ONCE —Ed Wheeler—

BOND MARKET IS QUIET

BUYERS AWAIT HEAVY FLOW OF NEW ISSUES; POLISH LOANS ARE ACTIVE.

SINCLAIR OIL 6S RECEDE

New York, Oct. 17 (A.P.).—Quiet ruled over the bond market today in reflection of the more than $200,000,000 new offerings last week, and in anticipation of a heavy flow of new issues expected this week. Prices were irregular. Announcement that the $47,000,000 American portion of the Republic of Poland $70,000,000 loan will be placed on the market tomorrow was the outstanding development. The issue is priced to yield about 7.68 per cent. Coincidentally, in connection with the Polish stabilization program, it was known that the Federal Reserve System, participating in credit arrangements made by various other banks of the Bank of Poland up to a total of $5,125,000 of prime commercial paper.

Polish bonds, particularly the 8s, were unusually active in anticipation of these credit developments, selling as high as 101 1/4, a new peak. The prices, however, depressed the price fractionally below Saturday's closing quotation. Aside from the Polish issue, some of the French issues, dullness and irregularity characterized the foreign group. Domestic bonds received only perfunctory attention. Sinclair Oil 6s dropped a point to the lowest price of the year, and Goodyear Tire 5s were in supply. Considerable selling developed in the St. Paul issue, some of which lost a point or so, while International Great Northern 5s also were conspicuously soft. Utilities offered rather firm resistance to selling pressure, although there were a number of fractional recessions, largely due to realizing.

Second Liberty 4 1/2s again sold around 100 1/4, just below the figure at which the Government is offering to buy in the bonds during the current week. Other Federal Government obligations were quiet, and the tone was mixed.

Tomorrow's new offerings will include $5,846,000 Southern California Gas Co. 5s, sold at 99 and interest. The proceeds are to be used in connection with the recently announced merger of Southern California Gas Co. and the Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

POST OF EDUCATION URGED FOR CABINET AT MASONS' SESSION

Cowles, Before Scottish Rite Council, Denies Bureau-Cracy in Plan.

PROPOSES GOVERNMENT UNIVERSITY FOR CITY

Knight Commanders of Court of Honor to Be Selected Today.

Urging the establishment of a Department of Education, with a Secretary in the Cabinet of the President, Grand Commander John H. Cowles gave the allocation address of the opening session of the Supreme Council, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction, yesterday, in the House of the Temple, Sixteenth and S streets northwest.

Cries of "bureaucracy," "centralization" and "invasion of States' rights," Mr. Cowles declared, were raised by opponents as soon as the question of the establishment of such a department was mentioned. In the Curtis-Reed bill, which provides for an education department, Mr. Cowles declared, there is no provision which allows the least interference with the rights of the States in education.

"During the coming Congress a new bill will be presented," he said, "that presumably will be the same as the Curtis-Reed bill, which was before the last Congress. It is a good deal of sentiment in favor of adding an amendment providing for a council of State superintendents, or the highest elected or appointed State school officials, to meet annually in Washington at the call of the secretary."

Commander Cowles also spoke in favor of the establishment of a national university in this city, to be supported by the Government. The need of such a university had been realized and the idea proposed by George Washington, he said, "and he not only left a bequest for the purpose, but in more than one of his messages to Congress called attention to the need of a national university."

Others Saw Need of University. Thomas Jefferson, Gov. Brooks of Virginia, Chief Justices Jay, Rutledge, Marshall and Chase, and at least ten of Washington's successors, saw the need of such a national institution and urged its creation, Mr. Cowles said.

Commander Cowles also urged that the citizens of this country should ever keep in mind the duties and responsibilities of citizenship and be awake to the danger of becoming lethargic concerning public questions. After the address of Commander Cowles, William P. Filmer, of California, grand orator of the council, pursued the custom of the organization and paid tribute to the dead members, after which Representative Clifton A. Woodrum sang "Taps," while two bugles played the air outside the council chamber.

Among the visitors at the opening session were Monte Blue, motion picture actor; Grand Commander Thomas E. Ramon, of Mexico; Grand Commander Alfred P. Webster, of Canada, and Secretary General W. H. Ballard, of the Supreme Council of Canada.

Following the report of Secretary General Hyman W. Witcover, the council adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

The election of members of the site to the rank of knight commander of the court of honor will be held today and the investments will be held in the evening. Masons rendering meritorious service to the order and to the Scottish Rite are nominated for the supreme council in their respective States and from these nominations a limited number are selected to receive the honor of knight commander. One must be a knight commander four years before receiving the thirty-third degree of Masonry.

Fight Waged as Joke Costs Watchman's Life

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 17 (A.P.).—A midnight pistol battle in the boiler room of the Piedmont & Northern Railway Building here yesterday, claimed by two of the participants to have been a joke, has resulted in the death of William Barnett, night watchman, who is in the General Hospital today with a bullet wound in the abdomen and two in his right arm.

W. W. Dial and Ad Martin, who are said to have hid behind the boiler and demanded Barnett to hold up his hands, only to be answered by a stream of lead from the watchman's guns, are also wounded. Dial in the abdomen, knee and arm, and Martin in the shoulder. Dial is in the hospital in a serious condition and his companion is in the county jail.

$10,000 Asked for Man's Death.

Mrs. Alice R. Ball, 810 K street northeast, administratrix of the estate of Marion J. Ball, deceased, filed suit in Circuit Court yesterday against Leon Amaducci, 3314 Fourteenth street northwest, to recover $10,000 damages for Ball's death. The latter was fatally injured in an automobile collision near Mount Zion, Md., on July 24. Attorneys Grubb and Miller appeared for the administratrix.

BLAIR'S BRIEF OPPOSES VANDERBILT TAX APPEAL

Holds Horse Breeding Losses Can Not Be Deducted in Returns.

NOT BUSINESS, HE SAYS

The breeding of thoroughbred horses may be a business with some persons but to Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who died September 24, it was a rich man's hobby, or something to satisfy the pride of a "landed aristocrat" who cared not a hoot for profits and did not make any, according to David H. Blair, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who is opposing the appeal of James H. Deering, executor of the Vanderbilt estate. Mr. Deering attempted to persuade the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Board of Tax Appeals to allow him to deduct from the Vanderbilt estate income tax certain sums representing a deficit in the operation of Mr. Vanderbilt's stock farm at Sandy Point, Portsmouth, R. I., and failed.

The bureau and the board overruled his plea on the ground that these losses were not properly deductible as regular business losses because the farm was operated for pleasure and not for profit. In a brief filed with the appellate court, Mr. Deering, in effect, accused the board of making fish of one stock and flesh of the other, that is, other wealthy men had been allowed to deduct losses suffered in operating stock farms, but Mr. Vanderbilt was not. Mr. Blair, through Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant Attorney General and A. W. Gregg, general counsel, and Shelby S. Faulkner, special counsel, filed a reply brief yesterday on behalf of Mr. Blair, in which it is stated that the Sandy Point farm was a show place and a place of residence for Mr. Vanderbilt.

He placed blooded hackneys there in order to win ribbons at horse shows, Mr. Blair says, and never intended to make a profit and did not make any profit in a score of years. Mr. Vanderbilt organized the Association of American Horse Shows and was its president when he died, the record shows. The buildings on the farm were too elaborate for practical business purposes and Mr. Vanderbilt was more concerned with blue ribbons than making money on horses, the brief states. Mr. Deering had asked to be allowed to deduct $24,975, which Mr. Vanderbilt lost in 1919, and $30,449, lost in 1920, and $26,898, lost in 1921, but neither the bureau or the board consented. The appellate court will now pass upon the question of whether or not horse raising, as conducted by Mr. Vanderbilt, was a business or a pleasure, although the fact that it could be both is recognized by all of the litigants.

NO TRACE IS FOUND OF MRS. COE'S BODY

Search Vain, as It Is Not Known Where She Jumped From Steamboat.

No trace of the body of Mrs. Beatrice Coe, 38 years old, 1408 Eighth street northwest, who is believed to have jumped into Chesapeake Bay from a stateroom of the Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Co.'s steamer District of Columbia, Saturday night, had been found last night.

Mrs. Coe, who was the sole support of her mother, had been in ill health for several months and physicians recently told her that she could not continue working longer. Faced with poverty, she obtained passage on the District of Columbia Saturday and looked herself in her stateroom.

She wrote a note to the captain of the boat, telling him she was going to end her life and expressing regret for the trouble her act would cause. Another letter was addressed to Mrs. B. Brown, 1207 Delaware place. Mrs. Brown said it contained no intimation that she was going to end her life.

She was found by a stevedore on the steamer when she leaped from the steamer as it sped down Chesapeake Bay.

Court Bans Review Of Baltimore Law

(Associated Press.)

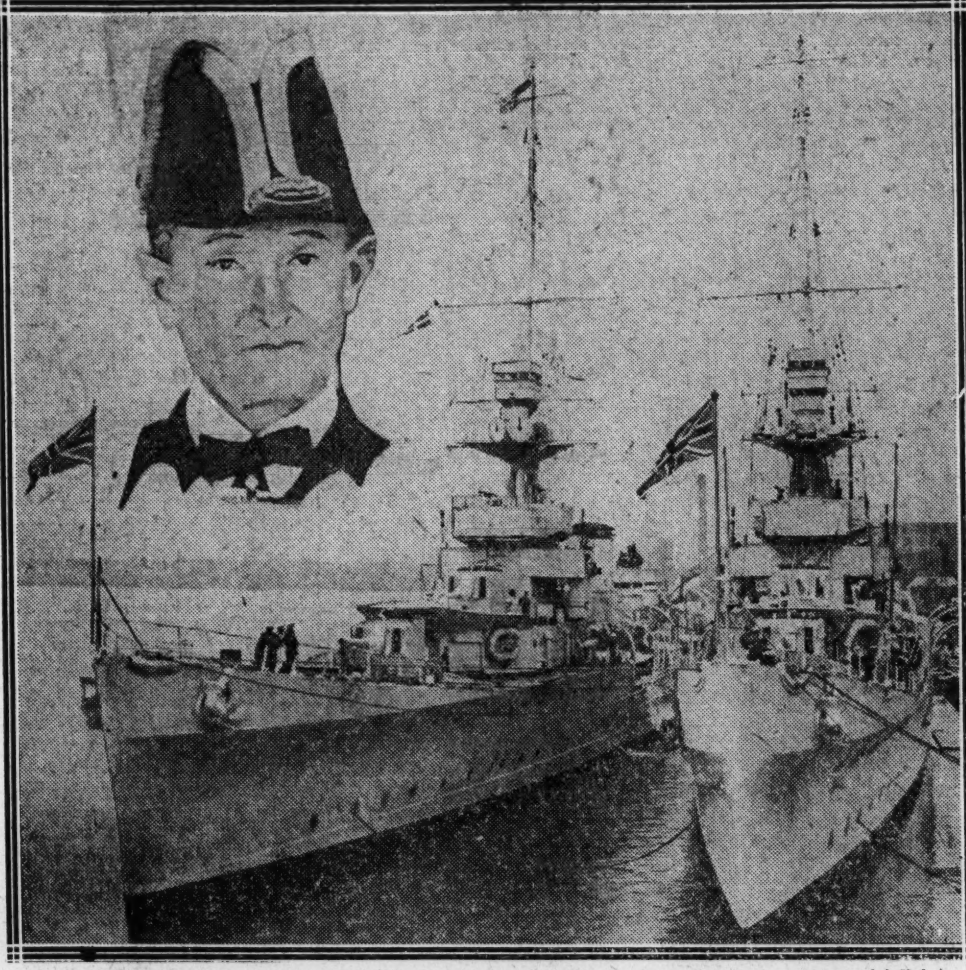

The attack upon the constitutionality of the meat inspection ordinance of Baltimore, Md., was in effect thrown out by the Supreme Court yesterday when the court found it unnecessary to hear argument from counsel for the city in support of the ordinance.

This, under the practice of the court, indicates that on an early opinion day will announce the dismissal of the appeal.

MOTHER RECOVERS BOY DISTANCE HIKER

Jesse Graf, Who Gave Capital as Home, Lives in Baltimore.

Seven-year-old Jesse Graf, whose stories of his prowess as an Indian fighter and long-distance hiker astounded Baltimore police Sunday night and caused police here to start a search for the home of his parents, was identified yesterday and taken home by his mother, Mrs. Bertha Graf, 1305 Glendon avenue, Baltimore.

The lad was found Sunday night, dusty and bedraggled, wandering around the streets of Baltimore with an ax in his belt and an air rifle in his hands. He told police his name was Jesse Graf; that he lived at Eight and K streets northeast, in this city, and that he had walked from Washington to Baltimore to view the Black-foot Indians at the Fair of the Iron Horse at Halethorpe.

Jesse's mother read the newspaper stories of her son's "hike" and immediately went to the police. He refused to explain why he told the stories of his "hike" and claimed Washington as his home, instead of Baltimore.

Man Wants Trial Halted So He Can Sue

Ashton H. Ball, 5008 Seventh street northwest, yesterday filed a petition in the Police Court on a charge of assaulting Police- man Abraham Buckingham in order that a civil suit for $5,000 damages, which he filed against the policeman, be tried first. Through Attorney C. C. Henry, Ball also asked the Appellate Court to review his conviction in the Police Court on a charge of playing ball in the street, for which he was fined $5 or 30 days in jail.

Ball sued Buckingham and Arthur C. Miller for $5,000 damages for an alleged assault and battery and was himself arrested the next day on a charge of assaulting Buckingham, this record shows. The arrest of Ball was made in
